Smith Cites Valuation Rise

ROMULUS—It is a real pleasure to announce that the State Equalized Valuation for Romulus Township, for 1970, is $133,769,580.

This represents an increase of almost $24 Million over the 1969 figure; it also represents a great deal of hard work and effort on the part of a responsible Township Administration.

Since most of the increase comes from industrial expansion, the picture is very pleasing because industry pays approximately three fourths of Romulus taxes, and the more taxes industry pays, the better break the resident taxpayer gets. Roderick E. Smith, township supervisor and candidate for Mayor, reported.

"Because this is election time, many candidates are using the taxes theme as a part of their campaign strategy, saying that they intend to do something about the high taxes in Romulus," Smith stated.

"The truth of the matter is that, although I agree with everyone that taxes are high, Romulus' taxes are among the lowest in the entire Metropolitan area, especially if you consider the special assessments that some municipalities collect.

"But I must add that the Township gets only 1.3 mills of the 15 mill limitation which is set by State Statute for Townships, the rest of the millage going to the schools

Sheriff Trains Students

ROMULUS -- Students from Romulus Senior High School will be seen daily at the sheriff's metropolitan airport division.

Sheriff William Lucas was quick to add that these young men and women are not law violators but are part of a new training program recently initiated in a cooperative effort between the Romulus Public Schools and the Wayne County Sheriff Department.

Commenting further, Sheriff Lucas said, "The young people are gathering valuable office experience working in the airport division and are being paid through a federal program.

"We hope, in addition to the experience and money, we can show them through a working association that law enforcement officers are truly interested in the young people of the community and not the disinterested tough guys that some of our youngsters picture them to be."

and the county; and in those areas, the Township Officials have nothing to say about their taxes since those two organizations are political entities and have rights to taxes under the statutes.

"If anyone wishes to criticize taxes, I suggest they direct their gripes to the proper places in order to get the desired results," he added.

Smith continued by saying:

"Once again, I think that this big hassle is the result of the lack of experience and knowledge on the part of the political aspirants; it only points up the necessity to have experienced people in the leadership positions in your local government. It surely indicates that some erstwhile politicians will criticize without just reason, but they don't tell the whole story, nor do they have the answer to their own criticism or they would give the answer to you."

For Charter OK

Carmichael Makes Plea

ROMULUS -- Banker Hyle Carmichael, one of the leading candidates for Mayor in Romulus' special May 7 incorporation election, this week issued a special plea to voters to approve the City Charter.

"The City Charter as proposed may not be perfect, but it is a very good Charter and accepting it will be a significant step forward for Romulus," Carmichael said, adding:

"There is no doubt in my mind that as time goes along, we will want to make amendments to the Charter. There are provisions for such moves. The City of Westland this past year changed its charter from partisan to non-partisan elections after being partisan for four years.

"The State Attorney General's office has told our Charter Commission that the Romulus Charter was as well prepared a document as it has seen. I think this is a wonderful tribute to our citizens who helped formulate it - and we owe it to ourselves to take advantage of their good work.

"I sincerely urge all voters to vote for the Charter and urge all their friends to do so, too!"

Concerning announced opposition to the Charter by a former township supervisor, Carmichael said:

"Let's face facts. There are certain elements that can benefit if Romulus fails to take this opportunity to incorporate. Why any thinking citizen would be gullible enough to let this happen, I don't know. But, possibly, they have their reasons.

"Personally, I am confident that Romulus' citizenry is as capable of making intelligent decisions as any around us. Even if some haven't had time to analyze the Charter personally, they are capable of making blanket judgments.

"They know that all the communities around us have and/or are going city. They know they've never heard of a city voting to become township. There are obvious advantages to being city and having a homerule document.

"There are always 'bogie men' somewhere who are against everything - and I would be quite surprised if they weren't around for this election!"

Carmichael, a banker in the Romulus community for some 30 years who has announced he will conclude that career to go into city administration full time if elected, noted that a "substantial majority" of candidates for office are supporting City Charter -- but even there are some "illogical" situations.

"How any candidate can be a candidate for office and ask for support when he doesn't even support the form of government that is being proposed is simply incongruent to me," he said.

"Personally, I want it known that I do support the City. In a sense, I am staking a substantial part of my career on trying to get better people into government in Romulus. The entire IR Team (Citizens for Integrity & Quality in Romulus Government) is publicly endorsing cityhood.

"If people aren't going to support the Charter, there's certainly no reason to support me. But, I think they will support both the Charter and me."

Carmichael said he and the IQ people are now and will CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR—Well known banker Hyle J. Carmichael, an announced candidate for mayor in the city incorporation election in Romulus May 7, takes the podium at a charter and candidate night held April 7 at Old Progressive Hall, Romulus. He urged approval of the proposed City Charter and outlined some of his aims and goals for the betterment of Romulus. He asked the audience for their support.

Governor OK's Romulus' Proposed City Charter

BY HENRY CANTIN

ROMULUS -- A proposed City Charter for Romulus Township has been approved and formally signed by Governor William Milliken.

Present for the historic event, held in Lansing last Thursday morning, were members of Romulus Charter Commission, township officials and administrators, area lawmakers. Senator William Faust (D-13th District) and State representative Edward E. Mahalak (D-38th District).

The Governor's approval of the 82-page document followed an earlier study and approval by the state attorney general's office.

Final decision on the proposed City Charter, that calls for a strong mayor type of government for Romulus with non-partisan elections to fill the post of mayor, clerk, treasurer and seven-member city council, will be made by the voters in a special election May 7.

More than 7,400 voters are registered and eligible to cast ballots on the Charter.

The city rule document has met with considerable amount of pre-election

There have been objections raised by a recently formed group - "City Charter Challenge" headed by former township supervisor and member of the Charter Commission, Terry L. Troutt, who states that he does not object to cityhood but to some sections of the proposed charter, and others.

Michigan Attorney General's office reported, in approving the proposed Charter, that Romulus

Charter was a well prepared document as it has been seen.

The Charter is the results of almost 15 months of constant sessions by the Romulus Charter Commission, conferences with leading charter framers and lengthy studies of charters now in operation in surrounding communities.

If approved by the voters, Romulus will become a city at 12 noon March 25 as provided for in the Charter.

There are 43 candidates seeking elective positions in the City Incorporation Election.

Three are running for mayor, three for clerk and three for treasurer.

The remainder of the office seekers are vying for the seven council seats.

The complete text of the proposed Charter is printed in this week's issue of the Romulus Roman.

The nine member Charter Commission that approved the proposed Charter by a vote of 6 to 2 with one absent, was elected in November, 1968 along with voter approval for City Incorporation.

The document for city rule contains 17 chapters. Elective terms under the Charter would be for two years.

Felix F. Rogalle, prominent area attorney and chairman of the Romulus Charter Commission, reported that the Charter to be is a very good document.

"It is far and above all the charters the commission studied during its 15 months of deliberations. It incorporates the best ideas of all of them," Rogalle said.

He also stated that the Charter "is definitely an improvement over the present form of government. There is no doubt about it the township form of government is slowly passing the scene. It has proven cumbersome with growing population."

A GOVERNOR'S APPROVAL—The Proposed City Charter for Romulus Township was approved and formally signed by Governor William Milliken last Thursday morning. Attending this historic event were members of the Romulus Charter Commission, township officials and area lawmakers. Left to right: William Moshier, Romulus Attorney and Charter Commission's legal advisor; Arthur Dittmar, Sr., Charter member; William M. Oakley, Charter Member; Roderick E. Smith, Romulus supervisor; Charles J. Dick, Jr., Charter Member; Felix F. Rogalle, Charter Commission chairman; State Representative Edward E. Mahalak, (D-38th District) Alfred J. Perry, Romulus clerk and Charter member. Senator William Faust (D-13th District) sits at right of desk.

Father And Son Shot In Holdup

ROMULUS -- Wayne County Sheriff detectives and Romulus Police have issued a county-wide alert to police agencies for the apprehension of two armed men, who robbed a Romulus party store and escaped with an undetermined amount of money after shooting the store owner and his son last Friday night.

Taken to the Wayne County General Hospital with gun shot wounds in the right arm and right side was Jerry Phillip, 57, and his son Mark, 17, who was shot in the right elbow.

The elder Phillip, listed as critical, was reported slightly improved Monday. His son's condition is good.

Police Chief Jacob J. Koch reported that two men entered the party store around 10:15 p.m.

One asked for some cigarettes from Store Clerk, Mrs. Margaret Comer, 47, of 15134 Scott Drive, Taylor.

They both produced guns.

Phillip, who was in the rear of the store when the men entered came through a side door then to the front of the store. One of the hold up men suddenly turned and fired two shots at Phillip striking him in the arm and side.

His son, Mark was also in the back room with David Hartwig, 15, of 27281 Eureka Rd. getting ready to close the store. They approached the front part of the store as the two armed men ran out the front door, one of them turned and fired at Mark striking him in the arm.

The men were reported to have entered a greenish blue-colored Rambler and escaped west on Eureka Rd.

They are described as: No. 1, Negro, 30, six feet one to two inches tall, wearing dark blue pants and shirt. No. 2 man was white, also 30, five feet six or seven inches tall, 200 pounds, red hair and wearing light colored clothes.

Candidate Night Set

ROMULUS -- "Candidates' Night for 43", being sponsored by the Romulus Homeowners Association (May 1), means more than the name implies.

It means the "Living, Breathing, Ballot" before you enter the voting booth on May 7. Many voters have already made up their minds on how they will vote, many other voters are confused. To all voters, we ask these questions:

Have you read and studied the Charter?

Are you being influenced by hear say, friendship, economics, or true knowledge?

Of the people seeking office, how many of the 42, have you had personal contact with, and heard their qualifications and opinions?

On the subject of annexation, what would it mean to you as a voter, how many would be eligible to vote?

Will this vote affect our schools?

How will this election affect our surrounding communities?

The importance of being well informed on this election, means more than the present. It is a decision for the future of you, your children and the community. Will you take the opportunity to become WELL informed?

Uses And Dangers Of Barbiturates Disclosed

Editor's Note: The following submitted by District James B. Stone of the 34th District (Romulus) is the seventh of a series on the problems of narcotics which has been in the forefront of current news reports.

When administered under a doctor's direction, barbiturates have proven to be effective therapeutic drugs for a variety of medical problems.

However, barbiturate abuse — unsupervised self-medication — presents a danger at least as great as narcotic abuse.

Extreme mental and emotional confusion with eventual tragic consequences (death is not uncommon) may result from abuse of barbiturates.

Barbiturates are the main depressant drugs used in medical practice today to sedate or to calm patients and/or to induce or produce sleep. Their effect is opposite to that of amphetamines; amphetamines stimulate the central nervous system while barbiturates act as depressants — slow down the actions of the central nervous system.

Some people have used the sedative or hypnotic effect of barbiturates as a way to escape serious personal problems; others take barbiturates to counteract the effect of stimulant drugs such as amphetamines, establishing a cyclical pattern of sedation-stimulation.

Frequently, barbiturates are used in combination with other drugs, mainly alcohol and/or opiates, both by thrill seekers and chronic drug abusers. Such experimental combinations are extremely hazardous since all of the agents affect the respiratory centers in the brain; results from such combinations include serious intoxication or death.

Drowsiness, tremor of hands, lips, and tongue, confusion and poor judgment, and lack of muscular coordination are signs of barbiturate intoxication.

Social consequences accompanying dependence include job loss, delinquency, and deterioration of appearance.

In addition, excessive barbiturate use may lead to increased tolerance, and physical and psychological dependence.

Many young people who experiment with barbiturates don't intend to continue their use, considering themselves somehow immune to drug dependence. However, before long, they are "hooked"; stopping seems impossible. Sudden, complete withdrawal of barbiturates from a person who is physically dependent on them often causes convulsions and severe mental disturbances; in extreme cases, death follows. For this reason, it is very important that withdrawal be supervised by a physician.

More suicides — intentional and unintentional — result from a barbiturate overdose than from almost any other substance.

Intentional suicides occur most often among patients who, while taking barbiturates for some emotional condition, realize that they are an effective means of producing unconsciousness. They ignore the precautions established by their physician for dosage and hoard large amounts of the drug to be taken for one lethal overdose.

a result; barbiturates, especially in combination with other drugs — including alcohol — can result in very serious intoxication or death.

The Drug Abuse Control Amendments of 1965 require detailed records on the manufacture, shipment, and distribution of the drugs covered: stimulants, depressants, and hallucinogens.

that a prescription for a stimulant or depressant drug under control is valid only for six months and, during that time, is limited to five refills.

In spite of this stipulation, large quantities of barbiturates are available on the black market.

The products involved in this illicit traffic often are not those of reputable manufacturers; thus, the risks multiply.

When the user becomes confused and thus does not remember how much time has passed since his last dosage, an unintentional overdose may result. He takes too many tablets within a relatively short time, not realizing that he is greatly exceeding the prescribed amount. Or — impatient for the depressant effect of the barbiturate — he may take a succession of tablets without considering the slow absorption rate and delayed effects. In either instance, a lethal dose may easily be ingested.

The dangers involved with unsupervised self-medication cannot be overemphasized. Large doses of barbiturates cause such intoxicating effects as mental and emotional confusion and loss of muscular coordination.

A lethal dose may unintentionally be ingested as

New Approach To City Planning Is Developed

A Detroit city planning consulting firm has developed a new approach for preparing master plans for communities.

While community master plans in the past have generally concentrated on physical development issues such as housing, transportation, and commercial and industrial development, a new approach is now being used in which full consideration is given to problems of poverty, crime, and health, as well as methods for improving the efficiency of municipal operations.

The firm, Gerald Luedtke and Associates, works with municipal and county health departments, police and fire departments, welfare agencies and voluntary social service agencies as well as the more traditional city planning and urban renewal agencies in carrying out planning work for client communities.

Gerald Luedtke, a Yale University-trained city planning consultant who heads the firm, believes that there are many benefits to be derived from this broader, more comprehensive approach to preparation of master plans.

Luedtke points out that because of the accelerated pace of modern urban life, it is necessary to more closely coordinate both the physical and social improvement of communities.

For example, urban renewal and rehabilitation projects can be carried out with less disruption and inconvenience to residents of a community if more careful planning is done for the rehousing of people and businesses on a staged basis.

Carrying out a staged urban renewal program requires very careful analysis and planning of the employment, social and cultural needs of persons affected by the urban renewal project.

Environmental health issues are given special emphasis under the new approach.

Such issues include the health problems associated with public water supply and public sewerage, solid waste collection and disposal, food protection, recreational sanitation, rat and insect control, municipal sanitation services, air pollution control and the industrial environment.

This broader approach to master planning also results in more effective coordination between the various municipal government agencies, the local board of education, and other public and private agencies serving a municipality.

Luedtke notes that it is no longer realistic to plan for development of a new shopping center without considering the problem of crime or the need for an enriched cultural life.

Whereas, the concept of suburban shopping centers began as a purely commercial enterprise, such centers have become focal points in the entire life style of many suburban communities.

But the emerging role of the shopping center as a community focal point has also centered many of the problems of crime and social disorganization in the centers which were formerly found in the older downtown shopping districts.

An American dentist and his Honduran counterpart-in-training saw 143 patients and did 659 extractions during a 9-hour visit to an isolated village in Honduras. The dentist is on a hospital team stationed in the town of Santa Rosa by MEDICO, a service of CARE.

In using this broader approach to planning work, the firm finds that it is often asked to propose solutions for immediate problems in a community which cannot wait for completion of an entire master plan.

Although he is often pressed to get new programs or solutions underway even before a planning program is completed, Luedtke believes that the immediacy of showing results during the planning stage is far superior to waiting overly-long periods until all studies are completed in a community's planning program.

He feels that placing more emphasis on the social needs of people in community planning is a very basic requirement — for the city is for the benefit of the people, and the people are in effect, the city.

The Story Of The White Cane

The thoughtful vision in the mind of a Lions Club member at Christmas time in 1930 resulted in the inauguration of the movement to provide white canes for the blind for their safety in traffic.

The idea of the white cane for the blind is credited to Lion George M. Bonham, who, in 1930, was president of the Lions Club of Peoria, Illinois, and through his efforts the Peoria Club presented white canes to the blind of that city.

That movement was brought to the attention of other Lions Clubs, and at an international convention of Lions in Toronto in 1932, presentation of white canes was adopted as an international movement.

In 1936, the movement was brought to the attention of our state legislature, and the White Cane Ordinance was drawn up and passed by the state legislature, giving the blind person with a White Cane the right of way.

Many other states have passed similar laws requiring all vehicles to stop when they see a person with a White Cane.

Chamber Backs Bill Limitation

Proposed state legislation, which would limit to ten (10) the number of bills that a legislator could introduce during each session of the State Legislature, received the unanimous support of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce Directors at their meeting on April 7.

Approximately 3,000 bills were introduced in 1969, and another 2,000 will probably be introduced this year. Three hundred and forty six (346) were signed into law in 1969.

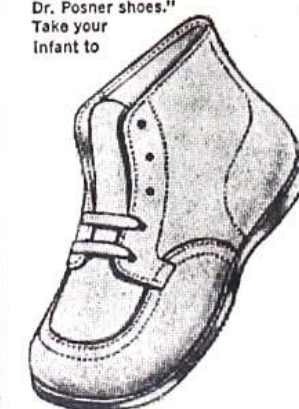

Although Michigan's Constitution tries to deal with the deluge of bills by permitting them to be carried over from the first year to the second year of a two year session, the problem persists. In his report to the Directors, Ted Stawick, chairman of the Government Controls and Regulations Committee, noted that "Excessive bill introduction is unduly burdensome and is expensive."

'Cityhood Makes 'Sense'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following submitted by Felix F. Rogalle, chairman of Romulus Charter Commission, is the third of a series of articles on the proposed City Charter up for voter decision in a special election scheduled May 7.)

By FELIX ROGALLE
Chairman, Charter Commission

You won't find anything in Romulus' proposed City Charter about "protection" of community boundaries or protection of commercial and industrial tax base.

But it's there!

And adoption of the proposed Charter in the May 7 election is without doubt the safest and surest way that Romulus residents have of guaranteeing that they - and not some outsiders - will be the ones to benefit from the industrial wealth that Romulus is finally accumulating.

It is part of State Law that when a community incorporates into a Home Rule City, it gets certain authorities and protections not given other political subdivisions.

Townships, for instance, are legal non-entities.

What this means is that (1) other people or communities can petition for incorporation or annexation of parts of Romulus and form their own city out of it, or (2) certain neighborhoods within Romulus can petition for incorporation or annexation and form a city - leaving the remainder as township.

These are not pleasant situations to discuss. And I, for one, do not care to try to convince Romulus residents they should do anything from fear.

But, facts are facts. And it is a fact that most of the incorporations which have taken place around Romulus in the past decade have been for and by the above stated reasons.

Wayne and Dearborn Heights incorporated to "take" industrial wealth - and they took it from Nankin Township and Dearborn Township. And even though their cases were challenged all the way to the Supreme Court, the incorporations stood.

Westland incorporated to "protect" the Westland Shopping Center from being annexed by Livonia.

The surest protection against such industrial wealth "thievery" is cityhood - and the reason is that township voters don't have the protection of Home Rule Charters.

Wayne initially tried to incorporate a part of Nankin Township all the way to Cherry Hill road - and with it a part of Canton Township. That election was defeated by nine votes in a recount - and it was shown that all nine of the opposing votes could have come from Canton Township.

Wayne immediately refiled new incorporation petitions - and this time took only the Wayne Ford plant and a small amount (several hundred acres) of industrial land along Van Borne Road. In this election, the remaining voters in Nankin Township were not eligible to vote and therefore could not vote against the loss of the industrial wealth.

Romulus, because of its low population and high industrial base, is particularly appetizing to expansion minded communities which do not have enough industrial wealth of their own.

If a neighboring city and a group of Romulus citizens living in the areas involved were to file annexation petitions to take some industrial wealth and go to that neighboring city, the remaining residents of Romulus would not have enough strength in all possibility to stop it.

Approval of the City Charter, of course, protects against eventualities - and Romulus voters might as well make up their minds that such possibilities will be constant threats until such time as the community is made into a city.

The second "threat" which Romulus voters should consider - particularly when they hear dissident minorities talking about becoming a city "later" - is that of incorporation from within.

If Romulus, as a whole, should fail to incorporate in the May 7 election, the way is then open for either incorporation or annexation from within.

By that, we mean that it is possible for a group of residents in one of the industrial areas to literally "draw their own boundaries" and petition for a vote to become a city themselves. With a solid industrial base to tax, they could very probably do it successfully. Several very rich cities not far from us were formed just that way - a handful of residents incorporating around a big industrial property.

We have all heard the reports that Taylor, Wayne, Westland and others "might be interested" in annexing portions of Romulus. It is not our place to comment on the veracity of such reports. But it should be made known that "threats" exist from within as well as without.

As far as so-called opponents of cityhood for Romulus are concerned, we wish to point out they, too, are saying they are in favor of city - only "later" or with a different charter.

As Chairman of a Charter Commission which spent many, many hours and months drawing up the present Charter, we can only say that chances of any group doing a better job are speculative.

All Romulus voters shared in election of the Charter Commissioners and they were, I believe, quality people. They did not all agree on everything in the Charter - but the majority did on every item or it would not be in there.

Putting off incorporation, as I see it, would not only be risky but foolhardy.

Any costs involved in operating as a city are not going to come cheaper later...they'll be more expensive, as everyone knows.

In the meantime, there are innumerable uncertainties and risks which could be very bad for Romulus residents as a whole. Those risks need not be taken.

A Charter can and should, be amended as it goes along. Other communities have and are doing so. But the formation of the City first is a necessity.

It is the "splinters" not the log - which should be worked out "later!"

Meetings Started

Perry Explains Charter

ROMULUS--The campaign backers for Alfred "Joe" Perry candidate for Mayor in Romulus City Election are pleased to announce that his first open-to-the-public Charter Meeting held at the L & L Hall, located at 1114 Sterling, was very successful and informative. The meeting lasted more than two hours.

Perry explained in detail matters pertaining to the intent and context of the Charter.

A full explanation of taxation and what it will cost individual home owners was given by the candidate.

Many questions were raised by the citizens and answered directly by Perry to the satisfaction of those present.

The following independent candidates were present and introduced: Ellis T. Pennington, Council; Charles J. Dick, Jr., Council; Michael L. Gersky, Council; Gordon Mitton, Council (Mitton had to leave before he could be introduced.); Charles R. Kline, Treasurer.

There were also two other Charter Commission members present, who concurred in matters of discussion on the Charter with Perry. They were Jess Tryon and Charles J. Dick, Jr.

There will be three more Wednesday night meetings to be held by Perry at 8 p.m., at the L & L Hall.

Explanation of the Charter and open discussion on any questions pertaining to the Charter that interested citizens may have will be the topics.

Copies of the proposed Charter will be available for those who wish them at the Campaign Headquarters, when Perry holds his next meeting tonight.

Everyone is welcome. Bring a friend.

Stewart Airs Views On Charter

ROMULUS--The following statement was issued Monday by James C. Stewart, currently a member of the Romulus Board of Trustees and candidate for a council post in the City Incorporation Election May 7. It stated:

"It's time to be heard! My name has been associated with various small groups of candidates who have banded together.

I want it to be known that I am not associated with any of these groups. I am running as an independent as I have in the past and will continue to do so in the future so that I may continue to serve all the people of Romulus to the best of my ability without becoming a pawn to some organization or group as I have witnessed in the past.

I have been asked why I am running for cityhood Councilman and not going "Gung-Ho" for Cityhood. I have never stated that I am opposed to city under the proper charter.

I have stated that the proposed charter has too many loop holes that need clarification and word changes. By the way, I have read the proposed charter and did obtain a copy of same by a method which I cannot reveal.

I feel that the elected officials should have been presented with a copy for study purposes in order to answer questions that have been asked by the public.

Some candidates have stated they are for or against the charter, but yet they admit they have not seen the charter.

Some are saying that the charter can be amended later and this is true, but its an expensive way to make changes. Petitions would have to be circulated and signed by at least six percent of the registered voters and a special election would be held. Now is the time to make changes.

If the voters decide to go city on May 7 it is my desire had to win one of the seven council seats in order to continue serving as the voice of the people on the board.

Be sure to exercise your right to vote. Go to the polls on election day.

The check, a contribution from the Seaway medical staff, was presented by Dr. Richard Reinhard, chief of staff. Accepting was John Reynolds, director of the Downriver Guidance Clinic, and Richard Fairgrieve, representative from Trenton on the Clinic's board of directors.

Headquartered at the Outer Drive Hospital in Lincoln Park, the Clinic currently services currently services close to 1,000 children yearly. These youngsters, reports Reynolds, are suffering from such emotional and behavioral problems as drug addiction, delinquency and truancy.

In addition to those actually seen at the Clinic, as many as 700 other children are aided through special conferences with school officials and clinical psychologists.

Although housed at Seaway, the Clinic will continue to provide its own operating funds and staff, which includes 11 specialists.

Hayti School To Hold Fair

ROMULUS -- Hayti Elementary School, 30155 Beverly Rd., will hold its annual Spring Fair on Saturday, May 2, beginning at noon and continuing until 6 p.m.

The theme for this year's event will be "Ma, Pa and the Young'uns" and it should be worth a trip to school to see the costumes, Mrs. Joanne Taylor, Fair Chairman, stated.

A country dinner of fried chicken with all the trimmings will be featured at 90 cents for adult portions, 45 cents for children. Sloppy Joes and hot dogs, pop and chips will also be available.

All games will be a dime ticket to play, ticket sales will take place in the hall. Every player will be a winner, reports Mrs. Taylor.

One special feature of the Fair that has kept the Hayti ladies busy all winter, is their "Handcraft" booth. Since early winter sewing bees have been held twice a week in the school kitchen where mothers have met to ready many beautiful, clever and useful objects for sale at the Fair.

Profits from Hayti's Fair will be used to further a dental care program sponsored by the PTA that offers dental care to all Hayti children, grades one through three.

He is a member of the Garden City Branch of The Oddfellows and served in the U.S. Navy during the Korean Conflict.

In commenting on his candidacy, Wood stated, "Living in Romulus for 12 years, I think I know some of the problems and think I can help solve most of them in the city."

"The major issue: Is Romulus really ready to become a city and how the taxes will affect us as a city? I think Romulus is ready to become a city because people moving here from the city and they want city conveniences. And as for taxes, they are going up if we go city or not. I say let's get something for our own people."

GNAS, Stanley F. 47, a Romulus resident for over

He stated that he decided to seek council office upon the encouragement of many friends and prominent people plus his own interest in helping to serve the community and develop it as a solid city.

In commenting on his qualifications on running, Gnas stated:

"My active interest in the community and wanting to get involved in the city council. I can help solve many problems of this community and I am not afraid to speak out on every issue."

He added that the major issues in the election are police and fire department expansion, more recreation, plus a Parks and Community Center is a necessity.

On taxes, Gnas stated "Tax situation analysis is definitely a great issue and professional administration is the main issue."

CARPENTER, George Henry, 37, a resident of Romulus for 37 years. He and his wife, Kathleen and their five children reside at 6545 Cogswell Rd.

programs. He has held various top level positions in farm and 4-H organizations. He has served five years on the administrative board of the Methodist Church and active in Beverly School PTA.

He stated that neighbors and friends urged him to run for council and commenting on his candidacy he stated:

"I have been elected to the office of president or administrative office of all organizations I've been affiliated with. I care about people and the good of the city."

Among the major issues he said were leadership ability as this is a change from township to city government. And taxes are a known fact to increase, but knowing what kind of equipment will be best to suit the needs of the city as per cost and maintenance and what would be better to rent, until a larger tax base is established.

"A councilman should go to the meetings with an open mind and consider the service to each member of the city and vote to the benefit of the majority not just a select few," Carpenter said.

"There must be equal opportunity for all citizens regardless of color, race or creed. Equal housing, service and job openings plus a good system for advancement," he added.

Carpenter stated that "we must do something to stop pollution, possibly with green belts as is done in London."

YATES, Hulen, 31, a resident of Romulus two years. He is a carpenter and member of the Carpenter's Local 19.

He attended school in Tennessee and graduated from high school there. He and his wife, Dorcas, are parents of six children. They live at 15555 Colbert St. The children are: Robert, 15; Monica, 12; Billy, 12; Jodi, 10; Hulen, 3; and Debra, 2.

Yates stated that he seeks council office "because I felt the people in Romulus should be better informed as to the happenings in their community. At the present time I do not feel this is being done."

On being qualified in running, Yates stated, "The only reason I feel I am qualified for this position is because I am willing to do my share of work to make this community a better place to live and raise our families. I also hope to make it possible to keep the public informed as to what is happening in our community."

He said on the adoption of a City Charter, "I feel Romulus should now become a city before other cities surrounding absorb valuable property belonging to our township."

STEWART, James C., 44, resident of Romulus for 15

Romulus Gun Club and member of the National Rifle Association and Wayne Lodge No. 112 F&A.M. He served in the Navy during World War II.

In seeking a councilman's post, Stewart stated that he wants to continue to serve the people of Romulus as he has in the past, if the voters decide to become a city.

On qualifications, he stated that his experience including service on the Planning Commission prior to being trustee and serving as chairman of the Board of Appeals, plus Township Board Membership qualifies him.

On the major issues of the election, he said "I do not feel there are any real major issues involved in this election other than the status of city, to be or not to be."

"However, I do feel there are a lot of major changes needed for the future development of Romulus. We also need stronger rules and regulations to control the growth of Romulus in the area of housing, industrial, commercial and zoning. We are a prime area with the airport, railroads and expressways so let's it as such."

MULBERRY, Gene E. 38, of 37815 Wick Rd. has been a resident of Romulus for 24 years. He is a senior instructor to Data Processing, and Sunday School Superintendent for 10 years. He has served in the Michigan Air National Guard (1940-50) and U.S. Air Force, 1952.

In commenting on his seeking the office of councilman, Mulberry said:

"I feel that Romulus has been a fine place to live and that we are faced with changes that are being forced on us by the expanding metropolitan area we are becoming a part of. I would like to help maintain the stability and some of the existing attitudes that make Romulus a community that is good to live in."

On major issues, Mulberry stated that a letter defining this information is being given to the community.

SILVEY, Gordon C., 34, of 36831 Porter, prominent member of the Jaycees, resident of Romulus for 32 years.

He is sales manager for McDonald Dairy. He attended Romulus Township schools and graduated from Romulus High School in 1954.

Silvey and his wife, Shirley Ann; are parents of five children: Diane, 16; Patty, 14; Margie, 12; Chris, 11; and Kim, 6.

He has been a township constable (1963) and trustee (1964). And is currently serving on the Board of Canvassers for the school

ROMULUS -- A bill introduced by State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus would revise the state law on driver licensing to more adequately cover discharged servicemen.

The Mahalak bill would exempt a serviceman for 30 days after his discharge.

This bill clarifies the present law," Mahalak explained. "It gives a man who is just out of the armed forces and who is usually busy readjusting to civilian life sufficient time to apply for his new license. This bill is particularly needed now because of the large numbers of Vietnam veterans who are returning home."

The Mahalak proposal does stipulate, however, that the serviceman would have to certify his status in active duty annually after his old license expires in order to be eligible for the 30-day exemption after his discharge.

The bill also would exempt from a Michigan driver license any member of the armed forces of the United States, stationed in this state, who is a resident of another state and has a valid license issued by his home state.

"This is another clarification of the existing law," Mahalak added. "It makes little sense to demand that a serviceman who has a valid driver license from another state also obtain a license in Michigan just because he is temporarily stationed in Michigan. Both changes which I propose in the law are courtesies which can be extended to servicemen without any danger to public safety."

Mahalak is Chairman of the House of Representatives Committee on Military and Veterans' Affairs. He has, since his election to the House in 1964, taken an active interest in veterans' legislation. He has introduced numerous bills to benefit veterans.

Eskimo Study Is Unique

BELLEVILLE—The fourth graders at Quirk Elementary School have been studying all about our Eskimo neighbors. They have actually been trying to accomplish their own "Eskimo-ness" by creating certain elements of this rigorous life.

Various workshops in school and at home produced models of mukluks, knot-tied fishing nets, kayaks, spear heads, seal-oil lamps, and totem poles, reported teacher Bruce Maslin.

Several of the more interesting and difficult projects proved to be the construction of a light-weight wooden dog sled, carrying a roll of "seal fur", and being pulled by a husky.

This husky was realistically created by gluing brown construction paper head, tail, and feet to an empty spool of thread.

Another of the more difficult projects was the erection of model snowhouses. Several of the children tried using marshmallows held together with glue. Others tried sugar cubes and glue.

But the only method which brought satisfactory results was sugar cubes held with cake decorator frosting. They found out the hard way.

In all, it was a unit of trial and error experimenting and of discovering exactly how difficult life in the polar regions can be. And how ingenious our Eskimo neighbors really are.

To conclude our study, Mrs. Stuckey, a neighbor of one of the girls in the class, visited the classroom, Monday, April 13.

Her husband, in affiliation with the Department of Science and Technology at the University of Michigan, has flown to Alaska many times in the recent past. Mrs. Stuckey gave the students a slide show, which included pictures of Alaska from the air as well as close-up shots of Barrows and of several Eskimos brave enough to have their pictures taken.

The most exciting Senior Citizens who are photographs, however, involved the catching, hauling in and cutting up of a 40 ton whale. Students were fortunate that Mrs. Stuckey was also able to bring a small kayak, genuine mukluks, fur mittens, a fur "yo-yo", and baleen from the mouth of a wright whale.

"We all certainly found our understanding of Eskimos greatly increased by this fine discussion, as it perfectly supplemented our reading, reports, and attempted projects.

We found this a perfect way to finish a most exciting study," Maslin said.

High School Band Goes To Festival

BELLEVILLE -- The Belleville High School Band is off again and this time to Flint to participate in State Band and Orchestra Festival along with 13 other bands that received first division ratings on March 24.

The band will be judged on a selected march, a selected concert number and a required number.

The March the band will play is John Phillip Sousa's "Nobles of the Mystic Shrine," the concert piece is "Festival Prelude," by Reed, and the number required by all class A bands in the state is "Second Suite" by Robert Jager.

The bands will be judged on their sense of style, rhythms, intonation and their full musical performance. Also, the band will be required to sight read a march and a concert number as part of the judging.

The band will have five minutes to examine the two pieces and then to play them to their best musical abilities. Don't forget to come to the Belleville High School for the Band's spring concert on May 9, at 8 p.m. in the new auditorium.

Senior Citizens Set Party

BELLEVILLE — The Belleville Area Senior Citizens Club will hold a Farm and Garden Party tomorrow. Members are asked to dress in appropriate dress of olden times.

Members are also encouraged to attend the Edgemont Elementary School's Play "Land of the Dragon" at the new Auditorium on Thursday and Friday, April 23 and 24.

The Vermontville Trip is filled for Saturday, April 25. Members should bring their payment to the Thursday meeting. The bus will leave the Belleville United Methodist Church at 7:30 a.m.

A pancake supper, put on by the Edgemont P.T.O., will be served Wednesday, April 29 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Gold Card Members may buy tickets for 75 cents.

The new member joining the club last week was Mrs. Anna Gales.

OKLAHOMA'S Governor earns $25,000 annually.

BY BEVERLY McANALLY

ROMULUS -- Ask any youngster who attends Hayti Elementary School how long it takes to hatch chickens from eggs and he will know. It takes up to 18 days.

Ask how many times a day an egg must be turned to develop properly, you'll get an answer: "Three times, very carefully."

He will even know something about the proper temperature (102 degrees, humidity (50 percent first 10 days, 65 percent the rest), and that it is best to have clean hands when you handle the eggs.

He didn't learn all this from a book. He didn't even learn it in a classroom, although he might have. He learned it in the custodian's office, "way down the first floor hall."

It all came about when Ray Chrisman, Hayti custodian since January, decided to hatch a few eggs for the youngsters of the Type A classroom.

He got some eggs from a friend who raises chickens. Val Connolly, school principal, had a fine incubator with a thermostat control, and so the project began on March 25.

They didn't say anything to the children then because two weeks is an eternity when you are very young.

Cory PTA Dance

ROMULUS—"Grab your partners" and head for Cory School on May 9, says Mrs. Gloria Chandler, "because we're going to have a square dance!"

The caller will begin at 8 p.m. and finish up around 11, she said. Joe Reed of Belleville will be the caller and don't let lack of experience at square dancing slow you down, because he will teach you how to do it.

Mrs. Mary Ann Treder will be co-chairman with Mrs. Chandler and will help with refreshments and the drawing for door prizes.

Admission will be $2 per couple and proceeds will be used for the Peace Corps self-help School Partnership Program, sponsored by the PTA.

Chicken Project Is Study Program At Hayti

But, when the first egg started to open on the thirteenth day, word was sent to the various classrooms to come to the custodian's office to witness the event.

Class after class came and the eggs continued to hatch before the marvelling eyes of the youngsters. Finally, there were 14 chirping little fluff balls and 400 volunteer foster parents.

After the initial class visit, the children came on their own to see how things were going.

Each hatching was a surprise. Some of the chicks are Plymouth Rock, some are Rhode Island Red and some are "just darling", with "racing stripes" running down their backs.

They're eating mash now, and drinking water, but they still have to be in the incubator and will continue to live there for a little longer. Then they will go into a pen and finally outdoors.

School will be out in June, and by then Ray will have taken them home. Not that he wouldn't like to be able to give them to the children, but he doesn't feel it would be fair.

Even with modern math it is impossible to divide 14 chicks between the many adoptive homes that have been offered, and as Ray puts it, "Chickens just don't make good pets."

But, maybe someday this spring or summer, some of the children will go out to Ray's place on Eureka Road and see how big those chickens have grown.

Stephanie Sherer Is The New Mrs. Curtis Smith

A spring wedding at the Assembly of God, Belleville, united in marriage Stephanie Jean Sherer and Curtis Horace Smith.

The double ring ceremony at seven in the evening March 26 was performed by the Rev. Sanford Cook and the Rev. David Pace before an altar adorned with fans of white mums and gladioli.

Mrs. Sanford Cook at the organ accompanied Rev. Cook as he sang "Because."

Parent of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Sherer of 39270 W. bash Road, Romulus, and Mr. and Mrs. Ian D. Smith of 43735 Bemis Road, Belleville.

ESCORTED UP the aisle by her father, Stephanie appeared in a white satin creation accented with white daisy applique. The formal-length gown featured a high neckline and long sleeves cuffed with daisy trim. Back interest on the

A-line dress was created with the use of a chapel train.

A white satin bow secured her mid-back illusion veil and she carried cascading white carnations centered with a white orchid.

As honor attendant at her brother's wedding, Kathy E. Smith of Belleville donned a pink lace frock with a matching veiled chiffon bow headpiece. Her bouquet of white carnations was accented with pink spray and pink streamers.

Cathy Sherer, sister of the bride, and Mary Genovese, a friend from Romulus, were bridesmaids in identical aqua lace ensembles.

In a pink bonded lace dress, styled in toe-touching length, Jacqueline De Francesco, four, served as flowergirl at her cousin's wedding.

WILLIAM SOWARDS of Belleville was best man and Robert C. Sherer, Jr. brother of the bride, and Bruce Motto of Belleville, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sherer chose a gray dress trimmed in off-white. An aqua, yellow and beige frock was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Both were presented with corsages of white carnations.

A senior at Romulus High School, the new Mrs. Smith will fly to Tacoma, Washington to join her husband after graduation in June. A 1967 Belleville High School graduate, Sp/4 Smith is currently serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Lewis, Washington.

For Bride-Elect

The P.N.A. Hall was reserved Sunday, April 12, for the miscellaneous bridal shower planned for May bride-elect Pat Sliwa. Some 200 friends and relatives traveled from Lewiston, Lansing, South Lyon, Harrison, Detroit, and neighboring cities for the afternoon party.

Co-hostesses Mrs. Stanley Sliwa, Sr. and Mrs. Arthur Shephard presided at a full-course buffet supper following games of bingo. Aqua and white streamers, wedding bells and flowers were used to carry out the color scheme of the upcoming wedding. Other decorative accents were an aqua and white parasol and a sprinkling can over the gift table.

Mrs. Rose Petras of South Lyon took home the door prize, a bride doll cake made and decorated by Mrs. Shephard.

Future attendants on hand to assist Pat and her fiancé, Jim Shephard, with their gifts were Dorothy Crider, Marie Ferguson, Tina Sliwa, Shari Ferguson, Brian Shephard, and Michael Sliwa.

A Week Apart

COUSINS MIKE and Tommie Hudge have birthdays just one week apart -- on April 8 and 15, respectively. On Mike's day, his parents, the Bill Huges, entertained with cake and ice cream. Guests helping celebrate Mike's 13th year were the Edward Hudge family, the Bert Smiths and Grace Hudge and children.

Friday was another birthday-bit for Mike when his parents took him, his cousin Johnnie Bokon, and two friends, Kenny and Jimmie Kottke, to Bimbo's in Ann Arbor. That's where the boys put away a good share of pizza and root beer as they enjoyed the olde tyme saloon atmosphere.

And finally, on Sunday, Mike's grandparents, the Walter Hesses of Brighton, and his uncle and aunt, the Charles Hesses with Tim and Suzie, of Ypsilanti, came to round out the family celebration.

TOMMIE HUDGE, who turned eight last Wednesday, had a tableful of cousins and friends with whom to share his birthday cake. Seated at the table were Tina, Cindy and Mike Sliwa, Danny and Pam Magnus, Mike, Judy and Cindy Hudge, Carol Smith, and Tommie's sister and brother, Sherie and Gary.

Also enjoying birthday 'pie' and coffee were the Jim Huges, the Bert Smiths, the Bill Huges, and Pat Magnus.

Stamey-La Fave Vows Repeated In Taylor

Bridal attendants in turquoise frocks preceded Debra La Fave to the altar of St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Taylor as she approached with her father to become the bride of Richard Stamey.

Some 200 guests were assembled for the April 11 ceremony presided over by the Rev. Stanley Hartman.

For the double ring service the altar was appointed with bouquets of white carnations. Music for the happy event was played by Mrs. Lawrence Quiel, the bride's God-mother, with her God-father, Kenneth Berry, singing three numbers, "The Lord's Prayer", "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet", and "I Love Thee."

FOR HER wedding day, Debra selected a formal gown of peau de soie fashioned with a lace bodice and bishop sleeves. Her toe-touching skirt drifted from an empire bodice into a chapel train.

Her silk illusion veil, caught to a Camelot headdress of lace and pearls, cascaded to chapel length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and blue straw flowers accented with white satin streamers.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Spearman of Dearborn Heights, was matron of honor. Others in the bridal coterie were Mrs. Harold Martin of Wayne, another sister; Nancy Watkins of Lincoln Park; Karen Flannery of Romulus; Denise Quiel, a cousin from Inkster; and Mrs. Rod Scarberry, the bridegroom's sister from New Boston.

Identically attired, their gowns were in the empire mode. Fashioned of turquoise nylon over taffeta, the bodices and long, sheer sleeves were frosted with white lace appliques. Floral headpieces held their matching elbow-length veils and they held harmonizing bouquets.

Six-year old Kimberly Spearman was her aunt's flowergirl and her brother, James Spearman, seven, served as ringbearer.

Double Ring Nuptials Unite W.M.U. Couple

The First United Methodist Church of Belleville was reserved April 18 for the double ring ceremony which united Cynthia Patalocco and Larry Petersen in holy matrimony. The seven o'clock nuptials were read by the Rev. Charles Dibley before some 250 assembled guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patalocco of 605 Columbia Avenue, Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Petersen of Youngstown, Ohio are parents of the young couple.

Church organist Thomas A. De Witt accompanied Donna Curry who played violin selections for the occasion.

 ESCORTED BY her father, Cynthia approached the altar in a gown of candlelight brocade. Designed with a fitted bodice, the neckline and waist were circled with beaded moonstone braid. Other styling details included bishop sleeves cuffed in matching braid and a controlled skirt with fullness at the sides extending into a full chapel train.

The beaded braid motif was used for the bride's headpiece which secured her mid-back veil of silk illusion with cascading white roses in an English design completing her bridal finery.

Linda Husted traveled from Los Angeles, California to be honor attendant at her cousin's wedding. She appeared in a formal gown of pink chiffon with see-through sleeves and an empire waist traced in white and pink with green flowers. Dark pink roses and carnations were used to form her bouquet.

Wearing identical ensembles and carrying bouquets of pale pink carnations with olive green streamers were the three bridesmaids: Mrs. Judith Szabo Hollander of Arlington Heights, Illinois; and Patricia Strang and Judith Sommerfeld, both of Kalamazoo and both former roommates of the bride.

 HEADING THE list of groomsmen, dressed in Edwardian tuxedos, was Duff Marley, a fraternity brother from Kalamazoo. Others on the esquire side were Allen Petersen, the bridegroom's brother from Columbus, Ohio; Dwight Patalocco and Keith Patalocco, brothers of the bride; and Fred Feitel and Hans Jensen, friends from Belleville.

The U.A.W. Hall on Ecorse Road was the setting for the reception which followed. Mrs. Patalocco received in a pale green ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Petersen wore for her son's wedding a blue outfit with harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was comprised of red roses.

Traditional First-Aid Outmoded

Although many first aid procedures have been changed and improved, most people cling to outmoded traditional methods, usually out of ignorance.

Red Cross officials point out that research and rethinking have developed new, more effective techniques for coping with emergencies such as:

CUTS: A careful washing with gauze dipped in soap and water is recommended. Iodine or other germ-killers should not be applied because they can kill tissues and retard healing.

FOOD: Or an object stuck in someone's throat and choking him. Immediate, repeated slaps on the back are dangerous because they may force the victim to suddenly suck in his breath or cough. Recommended: do nothing for a while to allow the victim to relax and cough up the object by himself. If nothing happens, you should reach inside his throat to try to remove the object with your fingers or lean him forward gently and then slap him. If a child is involved, turn him upside down to dislodge the obstruction.

BURNS: Never apply butter or other household grease. For a minor burn, apply cold running water or a cloth dipped in cold water until the pain stops. For a serious burn, when the skin is broken, apply a dry sterile dressing, held in place by a bandage.

NOSEBLEEDS: Tilt the person's head all the way back and pinch his nostrils. If the bleeding is severe, put a piece of gauze inside his nostril—one long enough to be easily removed. Do not use an ice pack.

Roughly 85 percent of the elementary schoolchildren in Guatemala are using CARE desks and chairs. Prior to the agency's aid, most pupils sat on packing boxes or bare floors.

Under CARE "food plus" programs, hungry people also get the tools and knowledge to work, earn and plan for themselves in future years.

Area Miss Named Yearbook Editor

ROMULUS -- Mary Genovese, 20, a 1967 graduate of Romulus High School, was named (April 15) as the new editor-in-chief of Michigan State University's yearbook, the Wolverine.

Miss Genovese, of 6115 Middlebelt, Inkster, is a junior at Michigan State. As a high school senior, she was editor-in-chief of Romulus High School's yearbook, the Eagle.

From the Eagle she went on to the Wolverine as a freshman at MSU, when she was a staff writer. She became off-campus editor in her sophomore year, and was in charge of features and copy this year.

"My goal is to teach high school journalism, and my experiences on the Wolverine have been most valuable," Miss Genovese said. She is majoring in English and minoring in journalism.

Miss Genovese now finds herself concerned with the role of yearbooks in universities.

"In a large university such

as Michigan State, the yearbook is often accused of being impersonal," she said. "I would like somehow to personalize the Wolverine."

Lioness Club Hears Mortician

BELLEVILLE -- Thursday, April 17, 1970 Lioness Sally Jones hosted a "very informative" evening for the Belleville Area Lioness Club.

Secretary Louanna McKelvey presented Lioness Sally with an Easter Lily corsage bearing a banner inscribed with "Rest in Peace," as an appropriate beginning to the evening.

Sally had invited Neil Terwilliger, local mortician with Roberts Brothers Funeral Home, and a Belleville Area Lion, to speak on the education and requirements of a mortician.

He also advised those in attendance as to how the local funeral director can be of assistance in a time of grief.

Lion Richard Bricks also dropped in to enlist the help of the Lionesses in his White Cane Sale on April 24 and 25.

Upon adjourning the meeting, coffee and cake were served. A good time was had by all who attended.

If you know how you like your meat done, then chart the route accurately with a meat thermometer. Not only will the meat be done to your taste, but you'll eliminate the uncertainty and fussing as to just how it will be done. Cooking a roast with a meat thermometer will also save money on meat since this guide assures the proper degree of doneness to replace meat which has been cooked too long with its extra cooking losses.

Mary Ann 'Showered'

WITH JUST a couple months left until her June 26 wedding, Mary Ann Sietz has been caught up in a whirlwind of pre-nuptial activities. Couple that with the fact she's doing her student nursing at Pontiac State Hospital prior to her June 14 graduation from Michigan State, and you have one busy bride-to-be!

Sunday, though, was a time for sheer pleasure as Mary Ann and her fiancé, Bill Emerson, opened the pile of packages which contained heaps of beautiful things for their first apartment. . . crystal, silver, appliances, casseroles, a lamp, bridge table and chairs, to name but a few items.

Invitations to the miscellaneous shower at the P.N.A. Lodge were answered by some 150 guests who drove from Sterling Heights, Warren, Grosse Ile, Ferndale, Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Dearborn, Pinckney, and neighboring cities. A social afternoon was enjoyed with lovely floral centerpieces and numerous other prizes presented to lucky winners.

The wedding colors of pink and green were used to add a festive touch to the hall with corsages in matching tones accenting the dresses of the honoree and her future attendants.

A bevy of bridesmaids was on hand to assist with the proceedings; Michele Nahoum of Grosse Pointe Park and Grace Sietz of Trenton, who're to be honor attendants, Judy Masser from Ferndale, and Carol Sobocki and Luanne Smith of Belleville.

Friends and relatives of the bride were hostesses for the gala event which was capped with a buffet supper.

S.O.S. For 'Oklahoma'

AS YOU'RE no doubt aware, OKLAHOMA is coming to Belleville next month. . . May 15, 16, 21, and 22, to be exact. And with less than a month left until opening night, the stage crew finds itself a bit strapped for period costumes and props which are vital to the musical's production.

Therefore, the crew is asking the community's help in securing properties. Needed are: cowboy boots, parasols, felt cowboy hats, ladies high button shoes, turn-of-the-century costumes, sun bonnets, and farmer's straw hats.

Also on the 'hard-to-find' list are: a small pot-bellied stove, small 'pitcher' pump, freight wagon (yup, freight wagon!), western guns and holsters, two revolvers capable of shooting blanks, wagon wheels, and small wicker picnic hampers.

Anyone willing to lend any of the above mentioned items, please notify Keith Drayton at Belleville High School, 697-9133.

Please remember to carefully identify each item.

And don't forget to circle those dates on your calendar -- May 15, 16, 21, and 22.

Luncheon For Louise

LAST WEDNESDAY was Louise Hope's birthday but it wasn't supposed to be celebrated until Friday when all her friends could 'make it.' But shortly after she'd arrived for her regular bridge luncheon at Gwen Liebler's, the whole story changed.

With her bridge foursome on hand, it turned out to be a 'special' get-together in her honor.

Their bridge partners, Lee Reel and Helen Fraser had just said their 'hellos' when the remainder of the party arrived. Marge Roberts, who'd just flown back from Athens, Alabama after visiting her family, Helen Miller and Lee Smith shared the birthday luncheon, a new Crab Louie salad Gwen had whipped up.

Hello, Pearl-y

TICKETS TO the Fisher were in the hands of Chet and Mary Kosin last Monday evening as they played host to several couples and Chet's mother, Mrs. Chester Kosin of Inkster. Enjoying the current production of "Hello Dolly" were the Dupel Mottleys of Inkster; the Al Blanks and the Lloyd Henriens of Westland; and the Bob Sewejkis of Dearborn Heights.

Pearl Bailey, Mary told us, continues her opening night bit following the final curtain when she does a monologue on her current activities. And being just back from the White House, she centered the entire bit on 'Dick and Pat.'

Dentists Convene

DR. AND MRS. Ronald Sierota were among area dentists and their wives in Detroit earlier this week to attend the Michigan State Dental Convention at the Statler-Hilton.

Sunday, having made reservations at Trader Vic's, they entertained a party of eight at dinner. Guests were Ron's cousins from Escanaba, the Roger Beauchamps; the Richard Lesnaus of Warren; and the Len Bensons from Grosse Pointe.

A week earlier Ron and Jan joined Waynites, Dick and Kathy Hage for an evening of 14th century Baroque music at Christ Church Cranbrook. They later dined at Machus Red Fox in Birmingham.

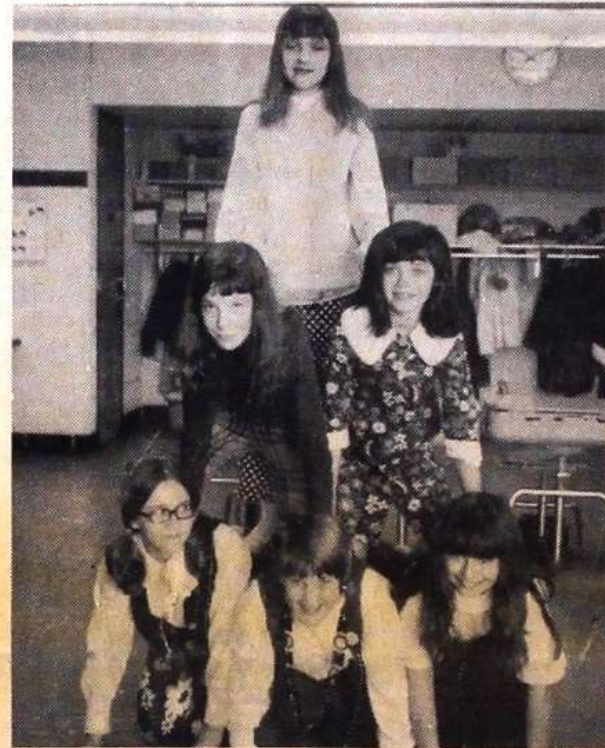

Wedding Day Nears

A DOZEN YOUNG friends gathered for an evening of laughter at the Russell Buck home on E. Huron River Drive recently, the occasion being a personal shower for Bette Gene Oelke.

Hostesses Susan Buck, Brenda Oelke and Kaye Wallace, conducted several bridal theme games including dressing the future bride in white tissue paper -- the most original gown winning an award.

After Bette had unwrapped the many pretty items for her trousseau, refreshments were served.

The First United Methodist Church has been reserved for the April 25 ceremony which will make Bette Mrs. Jack B. Burgett.

Women Of The Moose

The Friendship Committee met last Wednesday, at the home of Helen Jacobs to discuss plans for the Friendship Ceremony in June and how best to disburse funds earned.

Co-workers who will be receiving their Friendship degree at the State Convention in Taylor on Sunday, April 26, will be Phyllis Harden, Jeanette Domen, Myrtle Carver, Betty Shumbera and Marge Keller.

These co-workers have worked diligently to earn the required credits needed to receive this degree and they are constant in their efforts to help new officers and chairmen to earn their required credits.

Junior Regent, Betty Shumbera, Junior Graduate Regent, Martha Morton; and Argus, Jeanette Domen; assisted in a Chapter Enrollment in Grayling on April 11 and then attended the Executive Session the following day.

Former Grand Council member, Betty Van Heck conducted this meeting and our officers learned of many changes in Chapter laws and requirements.

We were received royally and thoroughly enjoyed our stay. On the return journey we stopped at the Bay City Moose Lodge and were pleased to see many old friends.

'Doc' Burns asked to be remembered and he is doing remarkably well after his long siege of illness. His wife, former Deputy Grand Regent, Sophie, also asked to be remembered.

Let's all go to our State Convention in Taylor April 24, 25 and 26.

It is close enough to home to enable all to attend at least one day.

On Saturday will be the most important day for co-workers in that many of the new changes and programs will be stressed and should be taken back to our own chapter.

Ever have the feeling that you can't make it through another day? Do body aches and pains and just plain tiredness tell you it is useless to try to accomplish anything?
Feel that old "out of snuff feeling" taking charge of your body and mind?
Someone should pass the word about chiropractic and the healthy, happy feeling that results when the brain and the body's nervous system are properly in tune and all the glands, organs, and muscles of the body are operating properly and efficiently.
All bodily actions are controlled by nerve impulses from the brain. If these messages cannot reach their proper destination because of pressures or impingements in the spinal column, the worn-out old body just doesn't want to respond to the order to get up and move.
That healthy, happy feeling returns fast, however, when a competent chiropractor gently adjusts the spinal column to allow free flow of nerve energy through the body. Nature imparts the glow of health and the MAN again becomes the master of the body, and life is a pleasant, new experience every day.

Romulus Civic Leader Runs For City Council

ROMULUS--Gordon C. Silvey, 34, sales manager with McDonald Dairy will bring 15 years of sales and civic experience to the City Council if elected.

Gordie grew up in Romulus and graduated from Romulus High School in 1954. He started his sales career with Mills Bakery of Romulus and was with them for 8 years. At the present time Gordie is a sales manager with McDonald Dairy, where he has been since 1965.

Gordie is currently serving his second presidency with the Romulus Jaycees and has been an active member for the past 14 years. He also served as Michigan Jaycee state vice-president in 1964-65.

He has been active through the years with the administrative board of the United Methodist Church, Board of Canvassers, PTA, the committee "React-Keep Romulus in Tact", and the United Foundation.

Silvey stated he endorses cityhood for Romulus. He admitted that at the present time he has not reviewed the charter because it has not yet been distributed to the public but feels it has many merits from his talks with charter commissioners.

Gordie wishes to withhold final approval until after he has had the opportunity to study the charter. He stated however, "I am 100 percent behind the idea that Romulus needs cityhood to grow and prosper in the future."

Silvey explained, "My position on cityhood comes as a result of studying the history of Wayne County where at the present time there are 32 cities and only 11 townships. Romulus, Plymouth, Van Buren and Northville are all at the present time considering cityhood."

When a township reaches a certain size it can better control its destiny and the services it must provide by voting to become a city.

"I am disappointed in the I-Q Committee," Silvey relates, "I really thought they had a great thing going with a non-partisan effort to educate Romulus's citizens on the benefits of cityhood. However their efforts are now used in pushing their own partisan state, and their motivations should be questioned by every voter."

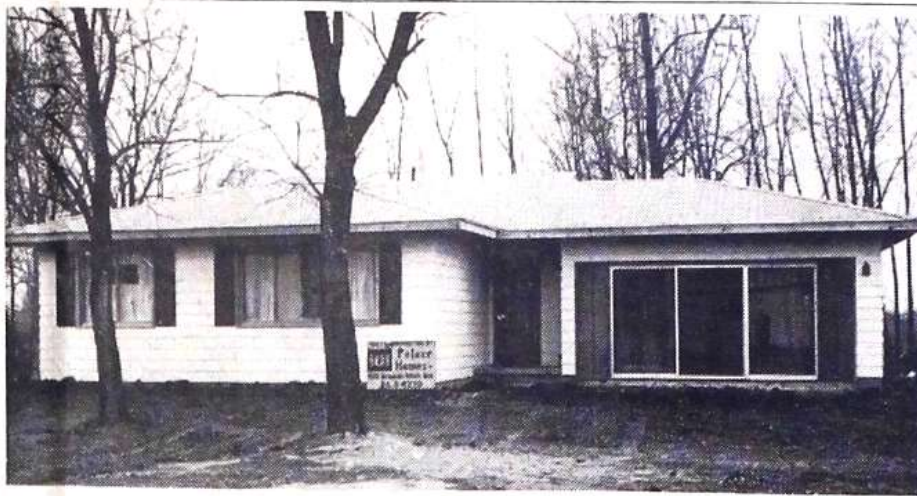

Gordie's wife, Shirley is presently a Para-professional with the Reading Improvement Program for Romulus Community Schools. The Silveys live at 36831 Porter, Romulus with their five children, Diane 16, Patty 14, Margie 12, Chris 11, and Kim 6.

Anyone wishing to help Gordie win, "A better form of government for Romulus and to fight off Organized State Politics", call Norman Wisler Chairman of Gordon C. Silvey for City Council Committee, 9405 Chamberlain, 941-4306 or 941-2488.

Kennel Licenses

BELLEVILLE--License renewals for two area kennels were approved by the Van Buren Township Board. They are:

Don Detar, of 40504 Tyler Rd.; and James H. Gilcher, of 40421 Tyler Rd.

NEW PARSONAGE--Members of The Church of Christ of Belleville, 894 E. Huron River Drive, have assisted in the construction of a new parsonage shown above. The parsonage was built next to the church's assembly building. Royal Palace Homes, Inc., was the main contractor. The congregation came to Belleville just four years. Since then, members have added the assembly hall, with an addition containing four classrooms, an office, two dressing rooms and a baptistry.

Church Builds Parsonage

BELLEVILLE--A church congregation known as the Belleville Church of Christ came to Belleville four years ago.

At that time some 80 members moved from a Main St. store to begin a new church at 894 E. Huron Drive.

They erected a building that would seat nearly 200 people, but within the next two years many people moved away and left the congregation with only about 45 members. Then in November, 1968, things began to pick up.

A new minister was hired. He was young and fresh out of the Memphis School of Preaching. Unlike the other ministers, who were from the south this one was a Yankee.

Born and reared in Wyandotte, Mich., where he lived for 23 years. He married Sharon Mittlestat, who was also from Wyandotte in 1962 and one year later was converted from Catholicism and became interested in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

He was supported while in school by the Trenton Church of Christ, 2650 Grange Rd., Trenton. He returned to the Trenton Church to work as an assistant minister until his present ministry in Belleville.

Last year the church erected an addition to its assembly hall. It consisted of four classrooms, an office, two dressing rooms and a baptistry.

The Church has continued to grow during the past 18 months and now has a membership of 86.

The church has built a new parsonage next to the assembly building, which was constructed partly by Royal Palace Homes, Inc. and partly by church members.

"The Church is growing, happy and confident, that it will be of great service to Our Lord and to the community of Belleville, in the years to come," David A. Rushlow, minister said.

Jaycee Corrects Report

ROMULUS--Charles J. Dick, Jr., 33, Jaycee, and a candidate for one of the seven city council posts in the Charter Election scheduled May 7, reported Monday published information that he was a past president of the state Jaycees is incorrect.

He was past president of the Romulus Jaycees and past secretary.

And was state chairman of Operation Handclasp sponsored by the state Jaycees.

The project involved the collection of schoolbooks and storybooks for sending to foreign countries by way of the U.S. Navy.

VB Title I Staff Presents Program

BELLEVILLE--Mrs. Leona Kozma, Title I reading consultant; Miss Doreen Binder, elementary principal and Mrs. Ella Woolery, director of elementary reading services and Title I presented slides at the Dossin Elementary School's PTA in Detroit, last Wednesday.

The slides depicted ways that some of the Van Buren Elementary Schools have attempted to (a) Increase reading skills and (b) Decrease potential disruptive and/or delinquent behavior.

To meet these aims a foundational component in Student Self-Responsibility and Behavior Modification was introduced.

An absorbing discussion followed which exhibited the interest of both teachers and parents in joining together to provide increased academic skills and meaningful, realistic programs in Student Self-Responsibility.

These kinds of programs may provide today's elementary children with at least some tools with which to cope with the problems of their adult generation--a generation which may be as rife with tension and unrest as the one in which we are living today.

Title I wants and needs the help of all teachers and parents in providing suggestions and ideas in developing the strongest academic and social programs possible.

Democrats Pick Perry

ROMULUS -- In September of 1969 Alfred J. Perry, currently Romulus Township Clerk and candidate for Mayor, took over the reins as local Democratic Club President.

Since that time he has put "new vim and vigor" in the Club and was rewarded at last Thursday's monthly meeting by the general membership present with endorsement for Mayor of Romulus.

Another endorsement was awarded from the floor to John B. Lewkowicz for position of Councilman.

Both Perry and Lewkowicz with other club members have worked very hard to keep the local Democrats intact.

Their efforts were not in vain as evidenced at last

ALFRED J. PERRY

Thursday's meeting when over 60 old and new Democrats, and interested citizens attended this informative monthly meeting to have present questions and receive answers relative to the new proposed Charter.

Other Charter Commissioners present were Terry L. Troutt, Charles J. Dick, Jr., Jesse E. Tryon and Perry.

Troutt and Jesse E. Tryon gave their viewpoints against the Charter while Perry and Charles Dick spoke in behalf of the Charter.

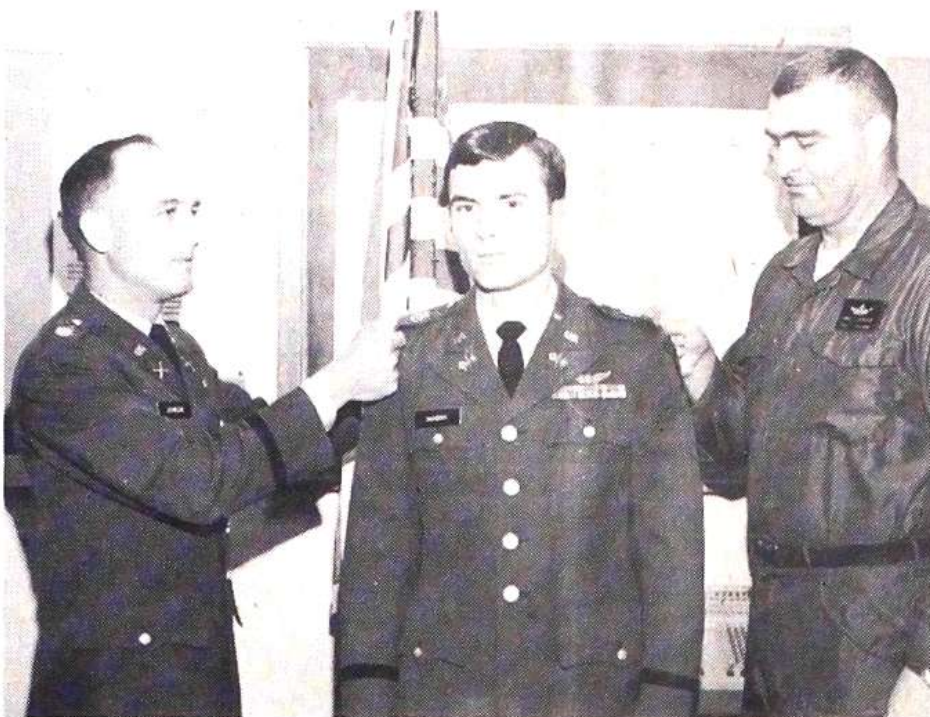

Perry prefaced his remarks with the statement that he was not present to sell the Charter to the people but to present all of the facts to the people and let them decide for themselves.

Troutt stated that he was not against City but was against the Charter and proceeded to explain the things that he disapproved of in the Charter.

He presented his figures on the proposed millage in the new Charter and Perry presented his on the millage based on a home assessed at $10,000 and told the people present how they could figure the cost of the millage on their own home.

Questions were taken from the floor and answered by the Charter Commissioners regarding a D.P.W. and other services that might be provided by going City.

Many old members renewed membership after last Thursday's meeting and the future of Romulus Democrats looks very rosy stated Perry. We will be looking forward to seeing larger crowds in future months.

LETTER BOX

TO THE EDITOR:

As a taxpayer in Van Buren township, I would like to know why there are two privately-owned vehicles parked in the township garage? One is a travel bus and the other is a privately-owned bus.

Who are the privileged few who are allowed to use our tax dollars for their own uses?

That is township property belonging to the people. The taxpayers and I are opposed to giving "special" people special privileges.

It's time we were ALL treated fairly. I have a camper trailer that's taking up space in my yard. Can I have a stall too?

Come on, Mr. Stoelton quit being pressured into giving out favors to your friends.

Candidate Tells Of Views On City Charter Election

ROMULUS--Harold H. Dubisky, 36, of 37815 Wabash, a candidate for council in the City Incorporation Election May 7, issued a statement this week airing his views on the proposed City Charter and major issues involved in the election. His statement follows:

"Don't let anyone fool you, if city is approved, taxes will go up.

If the vote goes against city and someone like Taylor tries to annex part of Romulus Township, and succeeds, the school district would remain the same. Romulus would still get all the taxes we get now for schools.

Myself, I'm against becoming a city. I think taxes are too high now. I believe the only people who stand to gain by Romulus becoming a city are the dishonest politicians and the real estate men.

I have entered this election as a candidate because I have been to several meetings with people who are also running for election.

I saw the way things were being decided on and did not like the fact that a few people were trying to decide how Romulus would be run and one of them does not even live in Romulus.

I also say, that if industry is so good for Romulus, why haven't our taxes gone down instead of up.

I was born in Romulus, have lived here all my life. I graduated from Romulus High School in 1951. Spent two years in the army. Went to Electronics School from 1955 to 1958.

Have been employed by Burroughs Corporation as an Electronic Technician in Engineering for the past fifteen years. Have owned my own business for the past ten years, a grocery store, called Hal's Market, at Bemis and Sumpter Rds. in Belleville.

I ask the voters of Romulus to read the Charter and if you decide to vote YES on the city, then put people in office who are for Romulus and the little man who pays the taxes which really hurt."

On the major issues, Dubisky stated:

"I believe taxes are too high now, and if we become a city, they will go higher. If we become a city, we need people in office to hold taxes down. Where do our taxes go? It is said that industry pays three dollars to every one dollar a homeowner pays. If this is so, I would like to know where all the money goes and if I am elected, I will find out.

On recreation program, Dubisky said, "I think a lot more could be done by putting the right people in charge of this program."

On Police protection, he said, "If elected, I will also try to get police protection at all sporting events at the school without the school board having to pay the city. It's their duty to protect the people who pay the taxes."

PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCE--Van Buren School District held Parent-Teacher Conferences April 15-17. Above is a typical scene at Denton Elementary School during conference time. More than 1400 cadets from 158 colleges and universities met to discuss the AAS program for the coming year and to hear addresses by top level aerospace leaders.

Cadet Inman is a member of the class of '70 at Michigan

The cadet is a 1966 graduate of Catholic Central High School, Monroe, Mich., where he was a member of the National Honor Society.

Sumpter's PTO Sets It's Spring Carnival

BELLEVILLE -- The Sumpter Elementary School PTO held its monthly meeting last Tuesday night.

The main topic discussed was the Spectacular Spring Carnival, to be held Saturday, May 2, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the school.

There will be six games with prizes (large and small) for all ages. Also, there will be a cake walk, country store and refreshment stand.

The PTO will put $100 towards volleyball equipment and the school will pay the rest.

A kindergarten roundup will take place May 4, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. and May 13 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

The PTO will serve tea and cookies in the cafeteria for the parents at these times. They will also assist in enrolling the students and answering questions about the school and the PTO.

Petitions will be passed soon to put Parochial on the ballot instead of Gov. William Milliken signing it into law.

If it does appear on the ballot, the people need to be informed of all aspects-pro and con. Members voted to have Edward E. Mahalak, 38th district representative, to speak at the next meeting on this issue.

The public will be welcome. The next meeting will be May 5 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Mabel Ellward and her son, Mr. Charles Ellward, of Huron W. River Drive are back home after a week's vacation trip to Englewood, Florida, where they visited Mrs. Ellward's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Knox. Reminder Issued To Young Boaters

Young people 12 to 16 years of age are reminded by the Department of Natural Resources that state law requires them to complete watercraft safety courses before they may operate motorboats of six or more horsepower.

Classes are conducted free by sheriff departments and enrollment details may be obtained from them or from the Marine Safety Section of the Department of Natural Resources in Lansing.

Boating Safety Certificates are issued by the DNR to those who satisfactorily complete the courses.

Michigan's Marine Safety Act of 1967, requires that these certificates are required of 12 to 16-year olds if they are to operate crafts of six or more horsepower. If they do not have the certificates, they-like all youngsters under 12--must be accompanied by an adult while operating a motorboat.

Since January, 1968, when the law took effect, 105,233 young people have received Boating Safety Certificates. It is expected that upwards of 35,000 certificates will be issued this year before conclusion of the courses in late May or early June.

Parents, Teachers Confer

ROMULUS -- This week will be the second week of Parent Teacher Conferences in the Romulus Community Schools and will complete the bi-annual elementary conference schedule for this school year.

Three schools will hold conferences beginning today, (Wednesday) with school dismissed for the children of schools and class groups as follows:

Kindergarten classes will be dismissed all day today, tomorrow and Friday. Grades one through six will be dismissed in the afternoon of Thursday, and all grades will be dismissed all day on Friday, April 24.

Mt. Pleasant Students Report On Airplane Ride

ROMULUS--Sixth grade students of Mrs. Diana Golka's class at Mt. Pleasant Elementary School and members of Mrs. Joann Martin's Special Education class went on an airplane trip on April 13.

They flew over the area in a North Central jet propelled plane. The scenery included Mt. Pleasant Elementary School, Tiger Stadium, Detroit and parts of Canada.

After their sight-seeing flight they toured the airport and then ate their lunches there before returning to the school.

The following story is the viewpoint of one of the sixth graders in Mrs. Golka's class and comments from other students:

By ROBERT MORRIS

Monday, April 13, 1970, our class went on an airplane ride all over Detroit. I sat by the left wing and left propeller. I could also see way down to the ground and all the roads.

When I looked at the cars and trucks they looked like little matchbox cars. Everything down on the ground from the airplane looked like a toy city.

From the airplane I could see the smog and pollution that was in the air over all the factories in downtown Detroit. I saw Tiger Stadium and Bob Lo Island too.

All the time we were up there I had fun. Before I knew it, we had to land. The wheels came down and we landed. We got off and went back to the school.

There were various feelings expressed by Mrs. Martin's Special Education class, some of them are listed below:

Henry Meyers: "It gets you in the stomach, it feels like a roller coaster! I wanted to go higher and see what it was like up there!"

Victor Jefferson: "Cobo Hall looked like it was big enough to put in my pocket. It's fa-a-a-st; the engine roars!"

Tom Chapman: "We kept going down halls and we couldn't find where we should be!"

Tommy Daniels: "We saw the race tracks and Cobo Hall."

ROMULUS -- Earth-Day will be a nationwide teach-in on the facts of pollution.

Throughout the U.S., schools and students will take part in anti-pollution activities.

Action from everyone has to be taken now against our plight if we are to survive in the future. It's now or never. If action is not taken by the public there will be no need for it in a few years.

What is more important -- soaps that bring brighter, spotless clothes or clean drinking water? Larger, speedier cars or clean air? The decision to live or not to live is yours!

demanding new pollution control laws, or just by keeping your refuse out of our environment.

Help make Earth-Day, Thursday, April 22, count and let it be a new beginning for the Earth.

Petitpren Offers TV-Radio Ad Bill

ROMULUS—A bill introduced by State Representative Vincent J. Petitpren (D-Westland) would make it possible for any radio or television station to refuse advertisements which are considered detrimental to the station.

"This is a right which should be extended to radio and television," Petitpren said. "The bill (House Bill 4561) would allow the owner or the operator of a radio or television station to refuse to accept any advertisement intended for broadcasting if he feels the advertisement would impair the value of the corporation. This has been a long-established privilege of newspapers and magazines. My bill would clarify this right for broadcasters."

The bill, if enacted into law, would be a protection for radio and television stations which are pressured to accept immoral, obscene or questionable advertising, Petitpren stated.

"Although the Federal Communications Commission has taken a strong stand on the broadcasting of pornographic material, the Supreme Court has taken a liberal view which could cause confusion on the part of broadcasters and enable advertisers to pressure them to accept questionable material," Petitpren pointed out. "This bill would make it possible for radio and television stations to turn down such advertising simply on the grounds that it is detrimental to the value of the station. No other reason need be stated."

Petitpren said the Michigan Association of Broadcasters has indicated its support for the bill.

Living Within Our Means

It has been well said that no one escapes the impact of inflation, and this goes for political officeholders, as well as everyone else. The lot of the successful political candidate today is getting increasingly difficult.

The freewheeling advocates of bigger and bigger government, whether they realize it or not, are pulling their house down on their heads.

Call it a taxpayers' revolt or anything else you wish, as inflation forces the cost of government up, political leaders must go to the people for more taxes—taxes that sooner or later become uncollectable. Then, the structure of government begins to collapse, and the ultimate bill for inflation comes due with crushing force. In some countries at such a time, officeholders are lucky to escape with their lives.

In a nation like the U.S., where voters still retain the right to "turn the rascals out", the big government spenders will face nothing more painful than packing their suitcases.

Currently, their wise course would be to back up the efforts of those who believe in government living within its means and curbing extravagant spending programs at every opportunity.

ROMULUS—Building activities in Romulus Township continued its upward pace during March, Joseph B. Gallagher, manager of the Romulus Building Department, announced Monday.

During March, the department issued 63 building permits for an estimated construction cost of $2,199,050. In addition, another 188 permits were issued for other than building.

Total fees collected in March amounted to $14,140, Gallagher reported.

There were 23 one family houses totaling $361,231 in cost and six apartment buildings with cost of $228,078 approved in March.

The $1,535,000 Hilton Inn complex accounted for a major share of the March total.

Other commercial structures approved included a storage building for Romulus Water Department, $21,000; Clark Oil &

Refining Corporation gas service station, $15,000, and a $7,500 remodeling program by Apache Truck Leasing.

In March there were 117 permits by the electrical department; 33 permits issued by the heating department and 38 permits issued by the plumbing department.

PTA Unit 'Fair' is Approved

ROMULUS — A school-wide "Fair" was approved when Harrison Elementary School's PTA met for their regular meeting last Wednesday, at the School.

The date selected for the event is Saturday, May 16.

The purpose of the fair will be to provide an enjoyable afternoon for the parents and children with less concern for profits than for the quality of prizes and games.

Memorial Art Is Ready

ROMULUS—Several art pieces that have been purchased by the parents of the Cory Elementary School area are soon to be installed, reports Mrs. Fran Petre, PTA president.

Three ornamental concrete benches have been purchased from the memorial fund established in the name of Mr. Andrew Thomas. (Mr. Thomas was Head Custodian at Cory School and passed away earlier this year.)

Brightly colored and durable, the benches are to be placed in the courtyard along with a sculptured figure of a porpoise, purchased by the PTA.

In addition, two sculptured figures that are being prepared by the children of Mrs. Cheryl Huff's fifth and sixth grade art classes are nearing completion. They will be mounted in concrete and located in the courtyard to make a pleasant resting spot for the children of Cory School for years to come.

GOSHEN, IND., NEWS: "Congressional correspondence has been running hot and heavy this session. A lot of letters from the folks back home have been inspired by concern over taxes, inflation and government spending, including no doubt, the 41 per cent pay raise Congress voted for itself. Some congressmen complained they were being swamped by the volume of mail. The result: The House of Representatives has authorized the hiring of 535 extra clerks, one for every member. The cost: $3.8 million a year. Sometimes you can't win for losing."

HARD AT WORK—Cory Elementary students (fifth and sixth graders) hard at work on their sculpturing. They spent part of their Easter vacation to hasten completion of this art class project for placement in the school's courtyard this spring. Mrs. Cheryl Huff is their teacher.

VACATION SPENT AT SCHOOL—Fifth and sixth grade students at Cory Elementary School spent part of their Easter Vacation back at school working on their sculpture project under the direction of their art teacher, Mrs. Cheryl Huff. Above the students are shown busy at their sculpturing. The figures are to be placed in the courtyard this spring.

OKLAHOMA is second only to Arizona in the number of Indian inhabitants.

HOME, SWEET HOME - Belleville's Steve Billings checks in after blasting a two-run homer in the fourth off Romulus hurler Lee Ballard. But Billings' roundtripper wasn't enough as the Tigers dropped the non-leaguer 6-4 to the Eagles for their second straight defeat.

Blissfield Goes Wild

Huron Loses, 20-3

A baseball coach has to take his lumps in stride and that's about all Huron coach Ron Smith could do last week when Blissfield exploded for 12 runs in the second inning and continued on its way to a 20-3 Huron Conference victory on Friday.

"It was one of those days," said coach Smith.

"They collected 16 hits and everything they did was right. I got a chance to look at all of our players, though, and that's about the only good thing about the entire affair."

The loss was Huron's third in four conference contests. The Chiefs also dropped a 4-2 decision to Carlson last week.

With Blissfield, whom many feel will win all the marbles in the league, out of the way, Huron still has problems. They'll meet Flat Rock today in an away game and will host Monroe Catholic Central on Friday.

Monday the Chiefs are engaged in a nonleague double-header with Gabriel Richard.

And because of injuries, coach Smith has only one starting pitcher left.

Against Carlson, sophomore Ron Thompson went the distance, gave up six hits while he fanned five and walked four in taking the loss.

Huron scored in the opening inning without the benefit of a hit when Butch Suemnick walked, stole second and third and came home on a passed ball.

Carlson tied it up in their bottom of the first and then went ahead 2-1 in the third. Huron, with one away, got a single from Don Delano in the fourth. He was cut down at second on Suemnick's force out. Suemnick proceeded to steal second and scored when Bob Guntow singled.

Thompson is the only regular remaining in the starting pitching rotation. Craig Adaline who figured in coach Smith's mound staff suffered a back injury last week and may be sidelined for the rest of the season.

Huron also will have to activate its hitting machine. The offense has slumped, leaving three batters with a .300 or better batting average.

Delano continued to set the pace with a .386 average while Guntow has .307 and Jack Gracia an even .300.

Nonleague Rivals Outrun Romulus

Two nonleague track rivals took the "win" out of Romulus last week as John Glenn breezed to a 96-22 decision and Cranbrook claimed a 105-13 verdict over coach Wayne Schimming's Eagles.

Ron Buckley's 19'1" leap in the long jump saved Romulus from a complete shutout from individual wins in the Glenn Meet while David Brown, who soared 11 feet in pole vaulting, was the lone Eagle winner in the Cranbrook dual.

Romulus carded four second places against Glenn. Tony Johnson was runnerup in the long jump with a leap of 18'10". He placed second

It's been a rotten spring but Romulus isn't complaining about it anymore. Not after coach Lowell Johnson's Eagles flew back from two losses to win three straight last week.

Romulus' latest victim was cross-the-swamp rival, Belleville, which Lee Ballard and his teammates disposed of 6-4. The Eagles also trampled a highly-touted Dearborn Heights Annapolis squad, 12-2, and shut out Tri-River Conference title favorite, Cherry Hill, 8-0.

Meanwhile, Belleville also dropped its opener to Wayne Memorial.

Ballard recovered his poise against Belleville after hitting the first two batters that faced him. He bore down and whiffed 12, allowed four runs on seven hits and five walks.

Ed Gielski started on the mound for Belleville and pitched two complete innings before giving way to Dick Wenzel who was relieved by Ernie Gowan in the seventh.

Wayne Beats Tiger 'One Man Team'

Despite the "one-man-heroics" of Belleville's Garrade Pettus, Wayne Memorial had the track depth to hand coach Ken Head's Tigers their first dual meet loss of the season.

Pettus, who leaped 6' 8 3/4" recently to win the gold medal at the Mansfield Relays, claimed four individual first places in a 61-57 setback to Wayne's aggregation.

Pettus soared 21' 4 3/4" to capture first in the long jump, then leaped 6 feet to place first in the high jump and came back to win the high and low hurdles to provide Belleville 20 of its 57 points.

He raced a 158 for the high hurdles and crossed the finish line in 20.8 for the lows.

Belleville also won the half-mile when Mike Fant went a 2:00.2. Coach Head's speed relay team placed first with a 1:35.1.

The Tigers' failure to pick up points in the pole vaulting paved the way to their defeat. Wayne "slammed" the event with Ben Cline setting the pace.

Cline cleared 13 feet to take the event. Teammates Randy Claborn (11') and Chris Swangurain were second and third, respectively.

Wayne, undefeated in three nonleague dual meet outings, received a double victory from Ernie Righetti who ran a 10.4 for the 100 yard dash, then polished off the 220 with a 22.8 effort.

The Zebras also were first in the mile and 2-mile runs. Rich Meyer crossed the finish line in 4:31.7 for the mile and Gary Schultz's was clocked in 10:04 for the two.

The best quarter-mile time was recorded by Wayne's Joe Feister who was clocked at 53.4. Bruce Kendrick tossed the shot 48' 1 1/4" to win his specialty.

Coach Bill Hawley's winning mile relay team was made up of Keister, Richard Meyer, Jerry Tapp and Bob Mercado, who finished in 3:31.4.

in the high jump with a 5'6" performance.

Brent Hamilton ran a 24.4 for the 220 to earn another second place for the Eagles while Brown's 11 feet performance in the pole vault was also good for a second.

John Arrington was second in the 220 against Cranbrook.

Belleville Is 6-4 Victim

Romulus Wins 3 Straight

Romulus broke a scoreless deadlock in the bottom of the third when John Toporek worked Wenzel for a walk. Bruce Jackson then slapped his first of two singles and with men on first and second Ray Horn sacrificed.

When Belleville hurler Wenzel threw wide of first base, Toporek raced home to score the first run. Paul Seestedt's grounder also ended up in a throwing error to account for the second run.

Belleville committed eight miscues to help in their destruction.

Belleville came back to tie the score in their fourth as Steve Billings blasted a 2-run homer with Dennis Badatol aboard. Badatol reached first when he was hit by a wild pitch.

The Eagles replied with a pair of tallies in the bottom of the fourth as Bill Worden ignited the rally with a single, stole second and reached third on Chris Glinski's sacrifice. Glinski was safe on another throwing error to first.

Toporek's sacrifice drove in one run and Jackson socked his second hit of the ball game for the second run in the inning.

Again Belleville came back with two runs to tie it up.

Jerry Cheeks walked and Dan Smith connected for a single. With men on first and second, Gielski doubled in run.

Wenzel was then hit by a pitch ball to load the bases. Badatol's infield single scored the last run.

Romulus went on to get one run in each of the next two frames to pick up their third victory in five starts.

Coach Lowell Johnson is still looking for improvements from his Eagles. He's not satisfied with the hitting production from his big sticks.

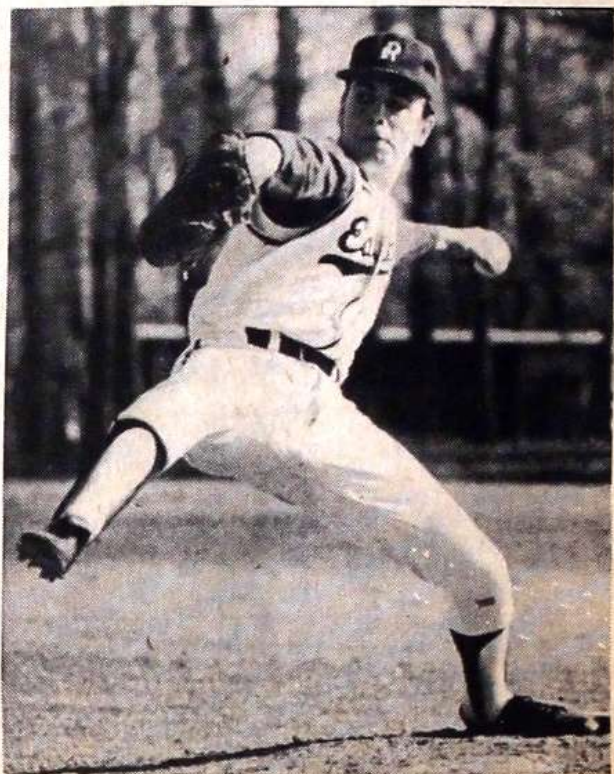

"Most of the hits are coming from the bottom of the lineup," said coach

Lowell. "We're getting our RBI's from Jackson and Toporek while the big sticks are silence."

"We can't have that," he said.

Romulus blasted Annapolis 12-2 with Leon Janes pitching 4 and 2/3 innings to get credit for the victory. Janes gave up two runs on eight hits and fanned one before giving up the mound duties to Ballard, who whiffed seven of the eight batters he faced.

The Eagles scored four runs in the third, came back for two more in the fourth (Continued on Page 17)

LOOKING GOOD - With the strike zone on his mind, Romulus' Lee Ballard unwinds. The Eagle southpaw notched 12 strikeouts Friday as he chalked up his second victory of the season, beating Belleville 6-4, in a nonleague contest.

Kaminskis: 'Need Pitching'

Belleville will try its baseball hands at another league rival today before leaping into the Suburban Six Conference warfare. Coach Vitold Kaminskis' Tigers dropped two to nonleague rivals last week, but, as yet, the losses aren't worrying the Tiger mentor.

"I got a good look at the boys," said coach Kaminskis who takes his team up against Ypsilanti today. The game will be played on the Tiger diamond at 4 p.m.

"If we get the pitching, I think our players will get their share of hits," he said. "We'll just wait and see what develops."

Belleville was to launch the league season on Monday at Redford Union. Rain cancelled out the contest and it'll be played at a later date.

The Tigers took it on the chin from Wayne Memorial in the season opener, 6-2, and lost a 6-4 decision to Romulus, on Friday.

Wayne belted three Tiger hurlers for 10 hits to hand starting pitcher, Dick Wenzel, who tossed the first four innings, the loss.

Wenzel gave up two hits, and one run, before giving way to reliever Ed Gielski who pitched the next two innings, Ed Branam finished up.

Roger Housley, who went the distance for Wayne, chalked up the victory. It was his first. He notched nine strikeouts while walking none.

Jim Green blasted a solo homer in the sixth to break a 2-all tie. Belleville collected runs in the third and fourth while the Zebras tied it up with a two-run fifth. After Green's blast, Wayne added two runs in the last frame.

Green batted 3 for 4 while Dean Minton, Chris Fabar also carded a couple of hits in three appearances.

Wenzel, Dan Smith, Jerry Cheek and Dennis Badatol all slapped singles for the Tigers.

Thinclads Split In League

Though rookie coach Lee Smeltzer and the Chiefs made their debut Tuesday into the Huron Conference a successful one, their victory string was abruptly and neatly cut by Grosse Ile, 76-42, on Thursday.

Last Tuesday, Huron, powered by a double victory from Dave Edge trimmed Airport 72 1/2 to 45 1/2.

Edge claimed both dashes, running a 10.3 for the 100 and a 23.5 for the 220. He led off the winning 880-relay team with Thel Dregansky, Roger Miles, and Ed Smith providing the leg power. The winners finished in 1:39 even.

Keith Emerson
Back in Area

For those who have forgotten, Emerson was head football coach for nearly a decade at Dearborn Heights Robichaud a couple of years ago.

He left the financially distressed school district in 1968 and eventually ended up in Sault Ste. Marie.

Last Friday, Keith was in the area to attend the University of Michigan football clinic and had enough time to say, "Hello".

I'm happy to be back in the area," said Emerson. "And I'm really pleased about getting the job. We are going to have much more material here at Belleville than I had at the previous school, and I'm optimistic that we can get the job done here."

Emerson will replace Jim Richendollar who left the coaching arena to accept a principalship at junior high school in Belleville.

Belleville, though it has in recent years been able to compete against its nonleague football rivals, has for the past five years had problems beating its suburban Six Conference members.

And with Dearborn and Edsel Ford, who recently received exit visas from the Sauk Trail, to join the Suburban Six, it looks like Belleville is in even deeper than it had been in those lean years.

The two Dearborn high schools have of late matured on the gridiron and have had winning seasons for the past six years.

With Emerson on the scene, however, it's going to be interesting to follow Tiger tracks come September.

Welcome back, Keith!

A Tale of 'The Milkman'

And what would this "effete" sports editor do without his Belleville congregation? They sure make me keep on my toes.

Last week, some kind woman called and said, "I forgot about her milkman." And, wishing to sound facetious, I replied that she should take her complaint to the Michigan Dairy Producers or to J. P. McCarthy.

"No, No, I'm serious," said the gal. "You forgot about Earl Glenn, our milkman."

The woman went on to explain: "Last week you wrote that (Continued on Page 17)

This is the last tryouts for the 1970 Baseball season.

Huron also received winning performances from Joel Richert, in the mile (4:59.9); Jeff Reeves, who won both the high (18.9) and low (23.05) hurdles and John Rietz who threw the shot put 38'10."

Jim Callahan was clocked at 10:54 to win the 2-mile run.

Smith was a double winner in Huron's setback from Grosse Ile as he took command in the 100 yard dash (10.7) and the long jump (18'9 3/4").

Edge was successfully moved into the quarter-mile where he turned in with the winning time of 52.6

Smeltzer's speed relay team of Edge, Dregansky, Miller and Smith crossed the finish line in 1:36.7.

Huron continues its battle for conference decision this week, meeting two more rivals. Last night the Chiefs ran Carlson and on Thursday they'll clash with Blissfield on home grounds.

Romulus

and exploded for six in the fifth.

Horn carved out 3 RBI's and scored twice himself in his 2-for-4 day at the plate. He also doubled. Jackson, Ballard and Bill Eager each had hits.

Ballard came out with a one-hitter to whitewash Cherry Hill, 8-0, for the second personal triumph of the season. He notched 12 strikeouts and walked four in inflicting the first loss on Pat Burke's pitching record this season.

A two-run double by Horn with Worden and Toporek helped to provide the winners with two of their three runs in the second inning. The Eagles scored twice in the third and got on the scoreboard three times in the seventh.

Romulus keeps on playing nonleague rivals this week, taking Ypsilanti Friday at home. The Eagles launch their Twin Valley campaign Monday against Willow Run.

Garrade Pettus was the first high school trackman from the area to win a gold medal at the Mansfield Relays.

"He wasn't. The first athlete to win that honor was Earl Glenn, who also competed for Belleville at the same relays in 1954. He won the gold medal in the shot put.

"In fact, he tossed the shot 52' 8 1/2" to set a record. And he won the Class B state title with a record heave of 54' 8 1/2" that year," she said in an authoritative voice.

"No, No, nothing like that. He was our milkman for awhile, but I don't know what happened to him"

Pettus soared 6' 8-3/4" to win the gold in the high jump at Mansfield.

Troop 739 Continues Fund Drive

Boy Scout Troop 739, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Charles R. Kline, and assistant Scoutmaster Larry Cooper, is continuing its fund raising campaign during April.

The Scouts are presently selling household and gift items door to door in order to raise needed funds for their program for the coming months.

Scoutmaster Kline states that with this program it will assist the troop to proceed on their projected Scouting activities.

Fund raising, selling and financial responsibility are all part of Scouting Kline states and adds that this teaches the boys to be proud of what they have accomplished and what they may look forward to in the future.

In addition to the above selling campaign, the Mothers Auxiliary Group, under the leadership of Mrs. Kenneth McCallum, has programmed a Pancake Supper held April 17, at the Harrison Elementary School. The price of the ticket will include a full menu of pancakes and sausages, milk or coffee.

While the main effort is being placed on the boys and their programs, and the Mothers Auxiliary sponsored a Social evening just for the parents at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Kropat, on Saturday, April 11, 1970.

Present at this gala affair were Mr. and Mrs. James Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kropat, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McDiarmid, Sr. A birthday cake was presented to Harmon, as this was his day. The affair lasted until 2:00 a.m., and was received most warmly by all involved.

With the month of May soon upon us, Kline has planned the following schedule for the Scouts of Troop 739:

Three five-mile-hikes occurring on May 2, May 16, and May 23, a one night over-nighter on May 30, while on May 9, the troop shall be treated to a Detroit Tiger Baseball game with the Kansas City Athletics.

On top of this the troop shall be taken for a submarine tour on May 17.

Kline feels that for the month of May, this will be enough activity to offset the month of April which has been strictly devoted to Fund Raising. He declared that even though the program is heavy, the boys appear to love every minute of it and he wishes to congratulate each and every boy for his effort in success of Troop 739. These boys are:

Paul Affholter, Harvey Millar, Douglas Cooper, Dale Mullins, Mark Webb, Michael McCallum, Steven King, Michael Bruckner, Kenneth

The troop committee has elected Alfred Kropat to the position of Troop Committee Chairman, Norman Webb, as Patrol Dad Chairman; and Michael Dyda as transportation chairman. The troop welcomes all of you parents interested enough to give us some of your time and effort.

Scoutmaster Kline states that it is rare when one sees the type and quantity of spirited participation in a service community organization as has been shown with Boy Scout Troop 739. The success and growth of this troop shall be, and is, insured for the future.

County Jigsaw Holds Key To Area Road Woes

DETROIT -- On the drawing boards of the Planning Division of the Wayne County Road Commission, western Wayne County is a giant jigsaw puzzle of interlocking green, red and black lines.

The red lines stand for the pleasant new roads built with taxpayer dollars since 1967. These include such routes as Inkster Rd. in the city of Inkster and the eastern end of Five Mile Rd. in Livonia.

The green lines stand for those projects which are covered by a $20,000,000 bond issue sold only recently by the county. Construction is to be completed in 1972. These include improvements like paving Haggerty Rd. south of Michigan Ave. in Canton and Van Buren Townships, and Cherry Hill Rd. west from Inkster Rd.

The black lines stand for "budgeted and committed" projects some of which are under construction now. This includes the Farmington Rd. construction in Livonia.

Even with all of the lines painted on the western Wayne County map, it is obvious that the paving of many area roads is a victory that won't be won immediately.

For instance, the badly needed Warren Rd. widening in Garden City and Westland is long overdue, but is still on the proposed schedule for completion by 1972.

On the other hand, the Farmington Rd. improvements should be finished soon even if the barricades temporarily make driving difficult.

In presenting a report of current county roads plans, County Commissioner Edmund Bizek of Romulus said he felt the county was taking it on the chin unfairly in being blamed for the poor condition of many county roads.

"You have to understand that the projects outlined take time to accomplish. The commissioners I know certainly have no interest in waiting to improve any road that needs it," Bizek said.

Bizek's comments were an indication of the hotseat in which many commissioners found themselves after their election in November, 1968. The pressure has decreased hardly at all since the first days of the 35-man board.

"We're putting every dollar we can find into needed projects like area roads," Bizek said. "We are definitely doing everything we can."

Bizek blamed political antagonisms against certain commissioners, splits among the commissioners themselves, and unfair comment about the supervisors pay issues last year as reasons for the "bad light" in which many voters see the commissioners now.

"We put in more time than anyone knows about," Bizek said.

During the road construction period from 1967-69, Livonia was the recipient of by far the greatest number of dollars for roads. Projects totalling $5.9 million were undertaken in Livonia during the period.

Inkster was next with $2.6 million in projects completed, and Romulus was third with $1.98 million in completed road projects.

Wayne had $1.24 million in road works, and Plymouth city and township and Canton Township were next with a combined total of $895,000.

Westland was a distant last with only $144,000 in completed road projects.

According to a report issued by James M. Davey, managing director of the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners, relayed to Bizek, the following western Wayne County construction projects have been completed in the 1967-69 construction period:

The Bell Creek Bridge on Farmington Rd. $178,000.

The Tarabusi Drain Bridge on Farmington Rd. $75,000.

Merriman Rd. from Wickham to Ecorse Rd. in Romulus, $294,000.

Sheldon Rd. from the C & O railway tracks to Five Mile Rd. in Plymouth, $535,000.

Venoy Rd. from Michigan Ave. to Van Born Rd. in Wayne, $590,000.

Cherry Hill Rd. from Inkster Rd. to Gully Rd., $737,000.

Beck Rd. bridges over

Fowler Creek and the Lower Rouge, $116,000.

Huron River Dr. from Willow Rd. to West Rd., $430,000.

Bradner Rd. from Five Mile Rd. to Six Mile Rd., $244,000.

Wayne Rd. intersectional widening at Ford Rd. and Cherry Hill Rd. in Westland, $129,000.

Cherry Hill Rd. intersectional widening at Wayne Rd., $15,000.

Farmington Rd. from Eight Mile Rd. to Schoolcraft Rd., $2.7 million, including participation with Livonia.

Inkster Rd. from Michigan Ave. to Cherry Hill Rd., in Inkster, $874,000 including participation with Inkster.

Inkster Rd. from Michigan Ave. to Annapolis Ave. $724,000, including participation with Inkster.

Merriman Rd. from Plymouth Rd. to Schoolcraft Rd., in Livonia $591,000.

Middlebelt Rd., from Goddard Rd. to North Line Rd. in Romulus, $781,000.

Wayne Rd. from Michigan Ave. to the Penn Central Railroad tracks in Wayne, $650,000.

Haggerty Rd. from Plymouth Rd. to Joy Rd. in Livonia, $314,000.

Inkster Rd. bridge over the Lower Rouge, $299,000.

Five Mile Rd. from Inkster Rd. to Merriman Rd. in Livonia, $2.07 million.

Salary Panel Is Named; Funds Approved For Court

DETROIT -- A committee of nine prominent citizens was appointed today by Albert J. Zak, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, to evaluate the compensation of Wayne County officials.

Named were:

Lem W. Bowen, Burroughs Corp. treasurer; Walker L. Cislser, chairman of the board of directors, Detroit Edison Co.; John Dean, Detroit civil service commission and sales manager, Clark Equipment Co.; John H. Gourlay, secretary-treasurer, Metropolitan Detroit AFL-CIO Council.

Also: Dwight Havens, president, Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce; Francis A. Kornegay, executive director, Detroit Urban League; Rodney C. Linton, cashier, National Bank of Detroit; Andrew W. Perdue, attorney and member of the Detroit Board of Education; and Jacob L. Sobieraj, attorney. Zak designated Havens as chairman of the commission. His choices were approved by the Board of Commissioners by a vote of 22-4.

Members of the commission were selected from names submitted to Zak by members of the Board of Commissioners.

The citizens, formally entitled the Wayne County Officials Compensation Commission, will evaluate the compensation for all elected and appointed County officials, including judges and the Board of Commissioners.

"I am pleased that so outstanding a group of citizens accepted this important public responsibility," Zak stated. "I am confident they will make an objective evaluation and fair recommendations."

The commission has complete discretion to proceed as it sees fit. Under terms of one board's resolution, the Compensation Commission may submit its report at any time from this day forward.

The resolution calls for the report "at the earliest possible time," but no later than Sept. 21, 1970.

In other action, the Board of Commissioners:

Ford Bill Aids War Widows

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman William D. Ford (Democrat - 15th District of Michigan) has introduced legislation to correct an inequity which he says has worked undue hardships on the widows and children of American servicemen killed in Vietnam.

The inequity, Congressman Ford said, lies in the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, which authorizes tuition-free education in overseas schools for children of armed forces personnel. Thousands of American children attend U.S. schools in nations where their fathers are, on military duty.

Congressman Ford, a member of the Committee on Education and Labor in the House of Representatives, has made several trips abroad to investigate the overseas schools.

"The Appropriations Act limits this tuition-free schooling to dependents of American servicemen," Congressman Ford said. "We learned on our most recent trip that this wording has resulted in students being turned out of school after Adopted a resolution requiring businesses bidding for County contracts to provide equal employment opportunity. A bidder can be disqualified if found to be discriminating on a basis of race, creed, color or sex. Evaluations will be made by the County Office of Human Relations.

*Earmarked $66,667 as the local share in applying for a $100,000 federal grant to be used for planning of a Juvenile Court and short-term juvenile rehabilitation facility west of Detroit. The facility will probably be located across Michigan Avenue from Wayne County General Hospital in Westland.

*Approved plans to apply for a total of $410,900 in federal funds for three new crime control programs under the Omnibus Crime Control Act. The three programs are:

1) An experimental residential rehabilitation center serving 100 male law offenders between the ages of 17 and 23. The center would be operated by the Young Men's Christian Association with the County helping to provide staff.

2) A county-wide delinquency and drug abuse teacher training program under which teachers would be trained to counsel students with such problems, to be conducted by the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

3) A series of youth forums to give young people an opportunity to develop leadership and decision-making skills to be operated by the Metropolitan Detroit Youth Foundation, Inc.

*Eliminated the requirement that a person pledge that he is not a communist in applying for a County job. The board acted upon legal advice that the United States Supreme Court had ruled such a requirement to be unconstitutional.

*Voted to ask the State Legislature to empower county boards to establish the office of county executive. Under the proposals, county boards would have the option of appointing an executive or having the office filled by at-large, partisan election.

NAMED - James L.

Brenner has been appointed branch officer in charge of the Westland Center office of Manufacturers Bank. Brenner, who started with the bank in 1959 lives in northwest Detroit. Brenner attended Michigan State University after graduating from Cooley High School in Detroit in 1954. He is married and has three children.

New HCMA Park Gets State Monies

The new Willow Metropolitan Park, the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority's newest park, located in Huron Township will be the recipient of a large share of the first money released from the State's $100 million recreation bonding program.

Willow, along with a planned redevelopment of Detroit's Belle Isle, located on the Detroit River, received the biggest slice of the recreation funds which are intended to develop and improve recreation facilities and parks in the Wayne, Oakland and Macomb county areas.

The tricounty area will also receive $3.5 million for recreation improvements in the heavily populated area.

Willow Metropolitan Park, which is scheduled to be opened for the first time this spring, will receive a total of $1,870,000 in state recreational funds.

The HCMA will continue to operate the park but the state plans to develop an "intensive use" center within the park area.

Out of the total funds,

$1.1 million are to be used for a swimming pool and parking lot, $350,000 for a game area, $140,000 for an entrance road, $190,000 for utilities and drainage, $40,000 for landscaping and $50,000 for walkways and a plaza.

Land for the park came from federal "open space" funds. The U.S. Natural Resources Department estimates that 660,000 residents live within a half-hour's driving time from the park proper.

The entire project came out of a move by Governor Milliken to put recreational funds, "where the people are." Consequently, the Legislature split up the funds to provide for $45 million for state projects, $30 million for local developments and $25 million for state-urban sponsored projects.

State-urban projects are defined as distribution by regions, or on a per capita basis.

Other projects earmarked for development in the area are: the allocation of $182,000 for the acquisition of land for one park in Livonia and $73,000 for another.

Westland is to receive $233,000 for the development of Jaycee Park.

Another bond issue scheduled for operation next fall, is slated to cover $32,000 needed for the lighting of softball fields, $82,000 for an artificial outdoor skating rink, and $35,000 for the development of Brookside Park, all in Inkster.

Social Security News

Medicare beneficiaries who had doctor bills in the last 3 months of 1969 that counted toward their $50 doctor bill insurance deductible may now count these same bills toward their deductible for this year, according to Louis Levine, Social Security district manager in Dearborn.

"If you did not have $50 worth of covered services under medical insurance before October 1, 1969," Levine told Medicare beneficiaries in this area, "the doctor bills you had in October, November and December before meeting your $50 deductible for 1969 can also count toward your 1970 deductible."

Cooling System Work Advised For Regular Off-Season Time

Owner, Contractor Would Both Benefit

The era of central air conditioning means that service and repair contractors often carry a round-the-clock work load during hot weather months.

The homeowner who installs a central cooling system -- or who need routine maintenance on an existing system -- should schedule it during the off-season, if possible.

Several reasons add up to benefits for both the homeowner and the contractor if the work is done in the off-season.

Delays in completing the installation of a central air-conditioning system in the busy season sometimes are unavoidable. During winter months, contractors welcome additional installation work to keep their crews occupied. In some cases, they will offer price reductions to encourage winter business.

Give System Chance

Your central air-conditioning system has its own brain -- the thermostat. Owners should give the thermostat a chance to operate effectively by making certain it is properly located where there is normal air circulation.

The thermostat is designed to provide maximum comfort at lowest cost, automatically regulating temperature and, to an extent, humidity, but improper placement can prevent it from doing so.

Keep the thermostat away from equipment that produces heat, away from lamps, TV, radios, kitchen appliances. Don't locate it behind a door that will block air circulation. A thermostat should not be near large glass areas where excessive heat may enter.

In addition to proper location, a thermostat is helped by a little understanding. Make a determined effort to avoid "thermostat jiggling."

Find the right comfort level, then set the thermostat, and then leave it alone. Frequent changes of thermostat settings will cause uncomfortable temperature and humidity fluctuations, and increase operating costs.

Sales Up

Ford dealers sold 45,375 cars and 17,138 trucks in the first 10 days of April.

The breakdown of car sales, by line: Ford 18,998; Torino 9,857; Falcon 621; Maverick 10,190; Mustang 4,480; Thunderbird 861, and Cortina 368.

The same advice applies to maintenance. When durable cooling equipment is properly installed and operated, and periodically inspected and serviced, it will last about as long as a home.

Most home central cooling equipment is manufactured according to the rigid standards of the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute certification program and carries the blue and white seal that assures accurate capacity rating and performance. This is added assurance and dependability.

Like anything mechanical, however, the equipment does require periodic attention from an expert. Off-season servicing is not only the efficient approach, it reduces the likelihood of summer breakdowns.

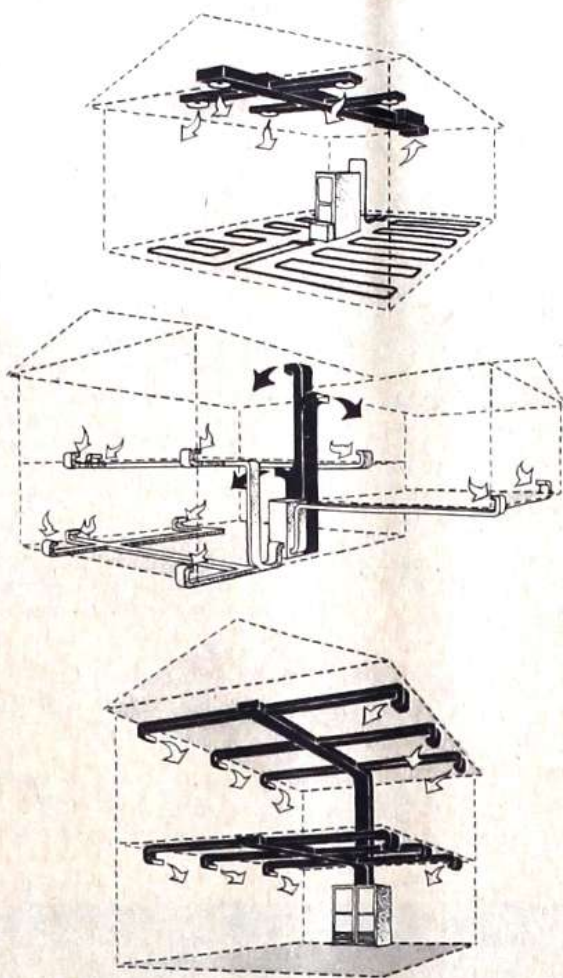

When the serviceman inspects your system, there are several checkpoints to be examined carefully, depending upon the type and age of the equipment.

Fans and motors on the condensing unit and the inside evaporative unit should be oiled. The outside condenser should be cleaned and, if necessary, painted to prevent rust.

Filters should be checked and replaced when necessary. Electrical switches and contacts should be tested carefully and the level of the refrigerant must be checked.

Signing an annual service contract with a reliable firm in the area is a suggestion that should be given some thought. The extent of the routine checkups, maintenance and emergency service should be spelled out in the agreement, which also should specify exactly what is covered in parts and labor.

Inspection costs are less because the service firm can do the work at the most efficient and convenient times.

AIR CONDITIONING TYPES--Here are three common ways that ducts can be arranged for central air conditioning in different kinds of homes. The ranch home (top) has hydronic or "wet" heat, so the ducts for cooling are located in the attic. A split-level home (center) needs only short duct runs to move cooling to each room. A two-story house (bottom) is air conditioned by means of ducts running through the attic to cool the upper level and between ceiling and floor to cool the lower level.

Area Policemen Earn Certificates

Commission Takes Action

LANSING -- The Michigan State Liquor Control Commission took the following action last week:

Denied the application of John C. Salvatore, of Garden City for a new full-year bar license.

Approved the request of Towne and Country Pharmacy Inc., 37376 Glenwood, Westland, for new package liquor license in conjunction with existing beer and wine takeout license, approved subject to verification.

Humidity Is Easy To Solve

Don't confuse condensation with leaky walls. Moisture may appear on the basement walls even when there is no leakage or seepage from the outside whatsoever.

This happens when warm, moist air strikes the cool walls, as just before a summer rain. Walls are noticeably damp and cold water pipes are likely to leave a trail of moisture on the floor.

Pipes can be insulated with several different types of batting, but the wall problem can be solved only by reducing the humidity in the basement or by paneling the walls with an insulating vapor barrier behind the paneling.

Electric dehumidifiers do a good job of drawing moisture from the air to make a basement room really comfortable and dry.

The best bet is to look after insulation and ventilation first.

If you want to go after light and air the same time, bring basement windows below ground levels with window wells or expand their size.

Then give your newly remodeled room ground-level comfort and livability with an electric dehumidifier.

Two Attend GOP Confab

Among the members of a 40-man Michigan delegation to the Republican National Leadership Conference April 15-18 in Washington, D.C., were two area Republican leaders.

Joining the group were Mrs. Cecilia Phelan of Plymouth, vice-chairman of the Wayne Second Congressional District organization, and Dwight H. Vincent of Dearborn Heights, chairman of the Wayne Fifteenth District organization.

AN EVALUATION--Among the first local officials to be called upon to make an evaluation of the Fruehauf Corporation Modular Concept to meet the demands for more and better housing was Roderick E. Smith, Romulus supervisor (left). He is being shown the proto-type home by Roblee B. Martin, vice president and general manager of Fruehauf Buildings Division.

Modular Concept Viewed

ROMULUS--Evaluation of the adaptability of the Fruehauf Corporation Modular Concept to meet the growing demand for more and better housing is being evaluated by experienced officials throughout the state.

Among the first to be called upon to help evaluate the 2-story, 3-bedroom, 1½ bath modular proto type home in Romulus Township was Supervisor Roderick E. Smith.

He along with Roblee B. Martin, Vice President and General Manager of the Fruehauf Buildings Division, inspected a detailed scale model of the 1104 square foot, air-conditioned home being designed to sell for $12,000 FOB factory.

Home Improvement

Windows Are Custom Item

A glass-walled office building is not a home. For one thing, entirely different types of windows are -- as a rule -- used in each.

To obtain windows for home, garden apartments or light commercial structures, all builders need do is select stock units from the wide range of sizes and styles available at local lumber yards.

But, glass curtainwalls used for offices must be custom-made by a fabricator at considerably higher cost than stock windows.

The window rule is sometimes broken, however, as in a county office building in Stillwater, Minnesota, Maintenance-free curtainwalls for that structure were made from stock window units with solar-tinted, welded insulating glass and vinyl-clad wood sash and frames available at local lumber dealers.

Cerny Associates, Inc.,

architects with offices in Minneapolis and St. Paul, designed the building and detailed the method of assembling the curtainwalls on standard steel T-bars to provide rigidity and perfect window alignment.

Windows used for the construction were Perma-Shield casement and fixed-sash units, made by Andersen Corporation, which require no painting and provide year-round comfort in both heating and cooling seasons.

All glazing was done in the Andersen factory. In a major departure from usual curtainwall construction techniques, the stock units were delivered to the job site and fabricated into two-story glass curtainwalls by the builder's work crew.

The vinyl-clad wood windows and masonry walls provide an exterior that is maintenance-free, except for routine cleaning.

The building's six curtainwalls open offices to outdoor views in all directions and flood the interior with natural light. At night, when the building is illuminated, the glass walls radiate a warm glow over the grounds.

Political Campaigns Should Be Kept Clean

For a couple of fellows who aren't announced candidates for any political seat, State Senator William P. Faust and State Representative Vincent J. Petitpren have gotten the race for Faust's Senate seat from District 13 off to a lively start.

District 13 — which is up for grabs this year — includes all of western Wayne County south of Joy Rd. and west of Inkster Rd. plus Taylor.

Taking pot shots — the filing deadline is June 14, nearly two months away — both men made known some of their feelings toward each other at recent press conferences.

While we would expect one of the most heated election contests in Western Wayne County should both men oppose each other in the Democratic primary in August, we can only ask that they stage a CLEAN CAMPAIGN.

We hope, or should that be — we expect, with their respected backgrounds — Faust is completing his first four-year term in the Senate, while Petitpren is serving his third two-year term in the House — will keep to the issues that will affect the people of Western Wayne County instead of trying to lambaste each other's characters.

Having each man reveal what he can and will do for his constituents is far more important for the voters to read and hear in a campaign than having the rival politicians attack each other's personal life either directly or through innuendoes.

After all, representing more than a quarter of a million people in government is a position for a responsible person, for a person of integrity.

Few things are more disgusting to us than to hear political rivals of the same party tear each other apart, often viciously, only to have them appear to make up afterwards for a so-called united front in the general election.

There Is No Freedom When Equity Dies

By JOHN P. McGOFF
President Panax Corporation

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew got the usual parochial rap across the knuckles for stating that the University of Michigan ran up the white flag when confronted with the demands of the Black Action Movement (BAM) a few weeks ago.

In Agnew's words, it was a "callow retreat from reality."

He reasoned that imposing a 10 per cent quota of unqualified students of whatever color on the university might tend to devalue the diploma.

At Ann Arbor, BAM organized a class boycott making this and other demands. U. of M. President Robben Fleming negotiated a settlement, then apologized again — for not apologizing in poignant enough terms the first time — for stating publicly what he thought was going on.

The Board of Regents then extricated Fleming from his own petard by ratifying the commitment to raise the quota of black students from 3 to 10 percent by 1973.

Fleming now says that Agnew was confused, a puzzler for a graduate school seminar in logic.

Gov. Milliken, fighting a leadership crisis in an election year, said:

"He (Agnew) is wrong and he was wrong."

Agnew in his De Moines, Ia., speech said academic competition should remain high, that it would better serve the disadvantaged students — and society — to prepare them for a university education.

University and college administrators around Michigan were aghast at the Fleming performance and the agreement — which the U.S. Office of Education says is statistically unworkable.

When students rioted at Michigan State University in East Lansing and caused $20,000 in damage to local stores, President Clifton Wharton said only two per cent of the student body was involved.

This leads inexorably to the perhaps painful logic, that the other 98 per cent is being deprived of some measure of their rights, such as equal opportunity.

Higher education, as exhibited in these performances appears to be bent on some kind of redemption by self-immolation. Campuses have heard the shrill demands for academic freedom for generations.

There is no freedom when equity dies and no justice when unreasoning dissidents dilute the quality of a great university.

That's what Agnew said and that's what Fleming and Milliken forgot.

He's A 'Serious' Candidate

BY DON HOENSHELL

LANSING — Rep. George F. Montgomery is an angry young man running for governor who tends to make his critics choke on their guffaws.

If he had followed another drum, the unsmiling Mr. Montgomery would have been a superb professional pallbearer.

"I didn't come here to tell jokes," he said.

Montgomery bears ill tidings very well, indeed, and talks a tough line about state financing, the impossibility with the present mood of tax increases, and the need for economy.

"I don't think we can get out without at least a $100 million cut in the governor's requested budget," he told a news conference.

"I can see whole agencies going."

He said the combined personal and corporate income tax collections are down $20 million since February, for example, that the $40 million a year Gov. Milliken expects from the cigarette tax increase is off.

Besides all that, Montgomery figures nobody in his right mind is going to increase taxes in an election year.

"We should start concentrating on giving the people their money's worth for what we're spending now," he said. "It's the only alternative."

Montgomery is 36 and a Detroit Democrat. He has been in Lansing since 1964 and now is majority floor leader, a position which adds weight to his words and fresh entries to his list of enemies.

He said the cut in spending will have to be greater because of the need in new programs, such as environmental improvement. Many existing drains on the budget, he said, are expendable.

Montgomery thinks the state needs a stronger approach to crime, particularly during an economic slump when robberies, frauds, and bad checks increase.

Everybody laughed when Montgomery announced for governor. His chances even now appear to be slim to the realists. He has a fulltime staff man, Art Underwood, and a secretary. Underwood is a former UPI reporter here who had the presence of politics to join Gov. Swainson's staff a couple of weeks before the roof fell in.

Montgomery is depending upon volunteers, small contributions.

His formula is designed to appeal to voters who are angry with government, suspicious of promises and up to here in taxes.

He's trying to get an agreement on spending in the primary from the other Democratic candidates for governor. So far nobody has expressed a willingness to sit on his dollars when it can buy TV spots or hire a press agent.

Montgomery, whose mother was born in Chassell, in the Upper Peninsula, says his political base is statewide. Most of his legislative travels, he said, have been in Michigan, another record which sets him apart.

Don't Miss The Sideshow

By Dick McKnight

While all eyes are currently glued to the impending collision between State Senator William Faust and State Representative Vincent Petitpren, an even more exciting free-for-all is predicted in the wake of the state senate race.

The scramble for position in the race for the Democratic nomination for state representative in district 37 (Wayne-Westland-Inkster), is all arms and legs at the present time. No single heir-apparent to Petitpren's seat is currently in sight.

Although Petitpren has said he would not endorse a candidate for his seat, should he oppose Faust, it practically goes without saying that Petitpren supporters would find someone to fill the void and pick up old Petitpren support.

Similarly, there are going to be candidates seeking the support that went to Faust, and more recently to Westland Mayor Gené McKinney.

Neither the Faust or Petitpren forces could properly be called machines. The fact that they exist together is evidence of the fact.

On the other hand, it is always possible that all the Petitpren and Faust supporters will become involved in the senate campaign up to their collective ears, with little energy left over for the representative race.

After all, if Petitpren and Faust do run against each other, the support one of them commands will end up without a leader. There is certainly no political advantage in that, and fear of such an outcome might leave the representative race up for grabs.

Most prominent among the supporters of Faust who figure in the representative race is Wayne Councilman Patrick Norton. Norton is attractive to those seeking a winner because he can count on Westland support, while building his main political base in Wayne. To boot, Norton is a native of Inkster. It's something like holding a double pinocchio.

Norton claims he is not a candidate, however, and there is little use talking about it until he is. One who is talking, however, is Westland Councilman Mrs. Justine Barns, who is actively involved in testing the political winds.

Mrs. Barns is no favorite of the Faust supporters, nor is she aligned with the Petitpren forces. While she has a core of her own support, Mrs. Barns is a self-styled independent. There is every possibility that this alone could make her a leading candidate.

One candidate of the Petitpren supporters might be former Westland Mayor Thomas Brown, whose dislike for Faust makes him a natural Petitpren ally. Brown's support in Westland is still strong, and there is little question about his ability to wage a campaign.

In Inkster, the current municipal elections are riveting attention away from the representative race, and no candidates of major standing have been discussed. Similarly, Republicans have indicated no concerted effort to win the seat, which is considered almost unswervingly Democratic.

Political observers will be missing a lot, however, if they forget to see the sideshow because of the act in center ring.

Lift Up Your Head

Beautiful Inkster--- Just Look!

By Rosemary Wolock

So many Inkster residents have negative attitudes about their community. It's amazing because the majority of these residents have never been beyond the corner of their block or past the neighborhood shopping center.

It isn't because Inkster is lacking in beauty. There are streets and sights in Inkster that would compare with any American community.

Take the Wangbichler house on Michigan Ave. between Harrison and Inkster Rd. In the summer when the roses bloom and spill over the stone wall that lines the sidewalk, it makes a picture that is unrivaled for miles around.

If modern architecture is more to your tastes, take a drive over to Ross and Meadowdale to see the Logan home which must be one of the most imaginatively-designed homes in Western Wayne County.

Take a drive to the Inkster Library. It's an architectural gem, perched on the bank of the Rouge River.

Another pretty drive on a spring day will take you along the streets that wind and twist along the parkway — Blackstone, the River Park Drives, Helen and Rosewood, for example.

Or take a drive into the lower Rouge Parkway. Turn west off John Daly and turn right at the next bend. Soon you'll find yourself going across a one-car bridge into a secluded park area, great for a picnic lunch or childhood explorations.

Inkster's past is visible too, for those who like to be nostalgic. Just west of Henry Ruff, an old sign nearly hidden behind some bushes proclaims the glory of the Hotel Paul Revere, once doubtless a thriving Detroit business. The sign serves as a reminder of the days when Michigan Ave. was the only way to get to Chicago.

In the eastern section of the city, the name Westwood shows up on all kinds of buildings and businesses, recalling the day when the Westwood Inn, then located at John Daly and Michigan, was a famous roadhouse.

For another trip into the past, visit Union Chapel Cemetery hidden away next to the Post Office. The tombstones bear names famous in Inkster history like Harrison and Hicks and Henry Ruff. There are still empty lots in the cemetery and recently Judge Willis Harrison was buried there. He is the grandson of Marenus Harrison, believed to be the first non-Indian settler in these parts.

On the other hand, there's the city dump and motel row and old rickety homes — all signs of urban blight. But recall the poem, "Two men looked out from prison bars; one saw mud, the other stars." When you look at Inkster, what do you see?

Do A $2 Something

BY KAREN CAVANAUGH

Throughout the country people are getting upset about everything and anything. Yet what do they do? Nothing.

People constantly hear others complaining about the young adults' morality and their free use of drugs and sex. But do they do anything to try and understand these young people? No, in very many cases. Talking is much easier and it always has been.

A very real proof of this concern are the spring adult education courses being offered by the Garden City Public Schools.

Of the 29 courses available, only 18 are in progress because that's the number that would be filled. There are more than 200 people in Garden City and surrounding area who are over 18 years old, but this is the number who have registered for the classes.

The courses not only deal with the standard arts and crafts, but also with job advancement training, drug education and sex education.

The last two topics are considered a bone of contention among adults concerned with morality. But regardless of how much people talk about these, it remains they do very little.

For the 'Family Life and Sex Education' class offered on Monday evenings, only 15 people enrolled. In the 'Drug Education' program the turn-out was much less. At the first meeting only seven people came.

Excuses are abundant for the low turn-out for the 'Family Life and Sex Education' class. Monday being a busy night for most people with the City Council, Board of Education and PTA meetings is the most common.

Only a handful, however, come out for those meetings. But now that excuse has been wiped out completely.

Adult Education Director John Thompson has announced that where class times conflict with meetings, the classes will be cancelled when possible and the course weeks extended to cover all the material, according to Robert Moseley, school public relations director.

As far as the Drug Education program goes, the only excuse heard has been that different schools within the district have sponsored such programs.

The programs are not the same. Material covered in a two-hour or so meeting can not compare with that covered in six weeks.

Maybe it is wanting too much to expect people to register not only for the oil painting classes, as 32 did, or sewing classes, as 40 did, but to also do something about the things they talk about.

It doesn't seem unreasonable, however, to spend $2 for registration fee which will let you do something rather than just talk about it and it's only one night a week too.

'Infinity' Plays At Opening

WAYNE — "Infinity," a hard rock musical quartet, has been chosen to play for the grand opening of Lakewood Lodge, a resort just outside of Muskegon.

The Wayne-based group is led by Larry Wright, 23, a 1967 Wayne Memorial High School graduate. He plays rhythm guitar and is lead vocalist.

Others in the band include Steve Struble on bass, lead guitarist Larry Byce and Jan Banya on drums. "Infinity" won out over numerous Detroit bands to get the job even though they have only been together four months.

Wright says his group is open for bookings and can be contacted at 728-4006.

IN THE ACCOMPANYING picture, producer Burt Levy, second from left, briefs the cast of Sir Graves Ghastly and his Haunted House Stage Show Revue, which will appear in person at the Terrace Theatre, Livonia, on Saturday and Sunday, April 25 and 26, for one performance each day, starting at 1:00 p.m. All seats are $1.50 and are now on sale at the Terrace box office. Left to right in the accompanying picture are (standing): Ghost of the Mummy, producer Burt Levy, The Wolfman, Dr. Sebastian Blood, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, and Frankenstein. Below are left to right: Stephanie, Sir Graves Ghastly, and Nurse Darling.

Narcotics Squad May Bolster Area Drug Battle

DETROIT — A county-wide undercover police narcotics squad will be established under plans approved by a committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The six-man unit would be under the jurisdiction of the County Sheriff whose men have the authority to cross municipal boundaries.

They will work with local police in an all-out attack on narcotics traffic.

The plan was approved by the commissioners law enforcement and public safety committee April 15 and will be considered by the ways and means committee which consists of all 26 commissioners, on April 23.

The unit would consist of specially-trained undercover agents equipped with sophisticated surveillance, communications and testing equipment.

The law enforcement and public safety committee recommended that the Board of Commissioners immediately appropriate $43,000 to establish the unit. The board will apply for federal funds under the Omnibus Crime Control Act in an effort to recoup all or part of the expenditure.

The narcotics squad was proposed in a petition submitted to the county board by eight of its members, including Ralph Patrick Turco, of Westland, D-District 25, chairman of the law enforcement and public safety committee.

"This unit will really strengthen the attack on narcotics traffic in Wayne County," Turco said. "It's big advantage is that it can cross municipal boundaries in developing cases, and can coordinate the attack on a county-wide basis."

Other signers of the petition were:

Board Chairman Albert J. Zak, of Hamtramck, D-Dist. 8; Harvey J. Beadle, Redford, D-Dist. 19; Edmund Bizak, Romulus, D-Dist. 24; Joseph Cardinal, Dearborn, D-Dist. 21.

Also John S. Cook Jr., Detroit, D-Dist. 17; William L. Dunbar, Detroit, D-Dist. 10; Rudy Hickey, Ecorse, D-Dist. 18; Thomas P. O'Rourke, Detroit, D-Dist. 14; Eugene A. Sikora, Detroit, D-Dist. 7; Philip A. Tannian, Detroit, D-Dist. 15; Joseph F. Young, Detroit, D-Dist. 4.

In other actions, a joint committee of the Board of Commissioners directed that a formal proposal be prepared for leasing of space at the Detroit House of Correction (DeHoCo) to relieve severe overcrowding at the county jail. The proposal will be presented to the Detroit Common Council for consideration.

The directive was issued by the special committee on the jail overcrowding and the law enforcement and public safety committee.

The County Board of Auditors reported that the leasing would cost approximately $929,000 the first year. This would include the one-time expense of $71,000 for fencing and remodeling of the presently vacant barracks and uniforms for 29 guards.

"This appears to be the least expensive solution to the critical problem at the jail," said Commissioner Eugene A. Sikora, of Detroit, D-Dist. 7, chairman of the special committee.

Three-hundred prisoners could be accommodated in the three barracks. The jail is approximately 300 prisoners over its designed capacity of 1,200 at present.

In addition to Turco, the law enforcement and public safety committee consists of Commissioners Dunbar, Sikora, Michael J. Novak, Detroit, D-Dist. 1; Carl D. Pursell, Plymouth, R-Dist. 26; Jerome A. Szymanski, Detroit, D-Dist. 6; and Albert R. DeBiasi, Allen Park, D-Dist. 22.

Fernald's Chekhov Good, But It's Not His Best

By HAROLD ALLEN

Panax Amusement Critic

John Fernald's reputation as one of the finest interpreters of Chekhov probably developed when he tracked the Chekhov conundrum. Chekhov says that life is tedious and he sets off to prove it by writing tedious plays about tedious people.

His "Cherry Orchard," for example, concerns a brother and sister, owners of a vast decaying estate with a once-famous but now useless orchard, destined to be sold for non-payment of interest unless the owners subdivide, tear down the orchard and put in summer cottages. But the sister is a fluttery spendthrift and the brother a vague dreamer, and, while protesting that they couldn't destroy their heritage, they let it go down the drain. The play ends with the orchard being cut down.

Tedious people with tedious lives? You bet — and most directors go wrong right here, deciding that the best way to portray tedious is with tedious productions. But Chekhov leaves his dough with a rich yeast of humor — anyone who has witnessed a Chekhov one-act comedy knows he is capable of pure farce — and Fernald sets himself apart from many Chekhovian directors by developing the comic possibilities to the fullest.

The current production at the Meadow Brook Theatre, Oakland U., is possibly second rate Fernald, which is easily better than first-rate most-others when it comes to Chekhov, for his tempo varies and there are unwitting static moments. But Jenny Laird and Marshall Borden turn in notable performances as the brother and sister, and there are several other interesting interpretations, among them His plays were not cliches, but they were vital, earthy and poetic. The cliches came from the lesser lights which sought to imitate O'Casey's genius — and even from O'Casey's later work, which paled beside such classics as "The Plough and the Stars."

University of Michigan Players closed out their season at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre with a production of "Plough" which, when it was right, occasionally reached the heights that O'Casey sought "Plough" concerns the tragedy of the residents of a Dublin tenement, caught in the Irish Revolution.

There is a wife who goes man from fear and grief because her husband is determined to fight in the Irish Army, a neighbor killed protecting the wife from her own madness, a young girl dying of consumption. There's enough here to stock a soap opera for six months, but there is far too much wit in O'Casey to ever make him soap-suds fodder.

U-M's production was at its best when this wit and vitality came through; at its Richard Curnock as the decrepit bulter who is left behind to symbolize Chekhov's awareness of a vanishing age.

Dr. James Rodgers emphasis on the mini-musical at the University of Detroit has at last found something which comfortably fits in U-D's small, inadequate theatre. The Titans offered an excellent season of three such works last summer, with more promised this year. Now they have added one to their winter season, Sandy Wilson's granddaddy of all the spoofs, "The Boy Friend," a wicked parody of the frivolous froth of the twenties which first brought Julie Andrews to America.

It's set in a French boarding school for English young ladies, and the unplot concerns the problems of whether or not to say yes to their boy friends (to a proposal of marriage, of course, this is the twenties) or how does a poor little rich girl know if she's loved for herself.

Wilson's gentle score includes several small gems, like "I Could Be Happy With You," and "A Room in Bloomsbury." The strength of the cast varies, but Elizabeth Shelle is a charming poor little rich girl.

All in all, it was another highly pleasant evening. U-D seeks to be bucking for the title of the "happy theatre." They will deserve it.

If it's almost a cliché that Irish drama has to be vital and earthy and poetic, then blame Sean O'Casey, worst when director James Oakley let the agony get the

Such special assessment bonds may be solely an obligation of the special assessment district or districts and a general obligation of the City. Such trust deed or assignment shall be in such form as to be recordable in the office of the register of deeds of Wayne County and shall be so recorded. Such deed shall state the amount at which the property would have been assessed if it had not been exempted. No such trust deed or assignment shall deprive the owner of the property to whom tax exemption is granted of his right to freely occupy and use the property, but shall give the city in the event that the ownership of such property is transferred to another in any manner whatsoever such an interest therein as will provide for the payment to the city of an amount equal to all taxes, exclusive of interest, penalties and collection fees which would have been levied by the city against the property of such owner had such exemption not been granted.

SECTION 11.6 PREPARATION OF THE ASSESSMENT ROLL

On or before the first Monday in March of each year, the Assessor shall prepare and certify an assessment roll of all property in the City subject to taxation. Such roll shall be prepared in accordance with the statute and this Charter. Value shall be estimated according to recognized methods of systematic assessment as determined by statute and decisions of the State Tax Commission and Supreme Court. The records of the Assessor shall show separate figures for the value of land, of the building improvements and of personal property; and the method of estimating all such values shall be as nearly uniform as possible.

SECTION 11.7 BOARD OF REVIEW

(b) The members of the Board of Review shall be appointed by the Council;

(c) The first three members of the Board of Review shall be appointed during the month of January, 1971 for terms expiring on January 1, 1972, January 1, 1973 and January 1, 1974; thereafter one member shall be appointed by the Council in the month of November of each year for a term of three (3) years commencing on the following January 1st.

(d) The Board shall annually on the first day of the meeting select one of its members Chairman and one of its members Clerk for the ensuing year; the Assessor shall attend all meetings of the Board of Review, shall be entitled to be heard at its sessions, but shall have no vote on any proposition or question before the Board;

(e) The members of the Board of Review shall be paid such compensation as the Council may determine on a per diem basis.

(f) No elected official shall sit on the Board of Review.

SECTION 11.8 DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS OF BOARD OF REVIEW

For the purpose of revising and correction assessments, the Board of Review shall have the same powers and perform like duties, in all respects, as are, by law conferred upon and required by Board of Review in townships, except as otherwise provided in this Charter. At the time and in the manner provided in the following section, it shall hear the complaints of all persons considering themselves aggrieved by assessment. If it shall appear that any person or property has been wrongfully assessed or omitted from the roll, the Board shall correct the roll in such manner as it deems just. Except as otherwise provided by law, no person other than the Board of Review shall authorize any change upon, or addition to, or correction to the assessment roll. The Clerk of the Board of Review shall keep a permanent record of all proceedings of the Board and enter therein all resolutions and decisions of the Board. Such record shall be filed with the City Clerk on or before the 15th of April following the meeting of the Board of Review.

SECTION 11.9 MEETING OF BOARD OF REVIEW: QUORUM

(a) The Board of Review shall convene on the third Monday in March in each year, or on such date as may subsequently be required by law for the meeting of Boards of Review in cities, at such places as shall be designated by the Council at its first regular meeting in February and shall sit for not less than three calendar days; provided however, that if the Council does not so designate a place for meeting of the Board of Review, it shall meet in the Council Chambers. Notice of the time and place of the meetings of the Board of Review shall be published by the Clerk of the City in the official newspaper of the City not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the first meeting thereof.

SECTION 11.11 ENDORSEMENT OF ROLL

After the Board of Review has completed its review of the assessment roll, its members then shall immediately endorse thereon and sign a statement to the effect that the same is the assessment roll of the City for the year in which it has been prepared. The omission of such endorsement shall not affect the validity of such roll.

SECTION 11.12 THE CLERK TO CERTIFY LEVY

Within three (3) days after the Council has made the appropriation for the ensuing year, the Clerk of the City shall certify to the Assessor the total amount which the Council has determined shall be raised by general ad valorem tax, together with such other assessments and lawful charges in amounts which the Council requires to be assessed, re-assessed, or charged upon the property and persons appearing upon such roll.

SECTION 11.13 CITY TAX ROLL

After the Board of Review has completed its yearly assessment roll, the Assessor shall prepare a tax roll, or combined assessment tax roll to be known as the City Tax Roll. Upon receiving the certification of the several amounts to be raised, assessed and charged upon the City Tax Roll as provided in the preceding section, the Assessor shall proceed forthwith to (1) spread the amounts of the general ad valorem tax according to and in proportion to the several valuations set forth in said assessment roll, and (2) to pace such other assessments and charges upon the roll as are required and authorized by the Council. To avoid fractions in computation of any tax roll, the Assessor may add to the amount of the several taxes to be raised, not more than the amount prescribed by law, which added amount when collected shall belong to the City.

SECTION 11.14 TAX ROLL: CERTIFIED FOR COLLECTION

After spreading the taxes and placing other assessments and charges upon the Roll, the Assessor shall certify the tax roll and annex his warrant thereto directing and requiring the Treasurer to collect, on July 1 of the same year, from the several persons named in the roll the several sums mentioned therein opposite their respective names as a tax or assessment, and granting to and vesting in the Treasurer, for the purpose of collecting the taxes, assessments and charges on such roll all the statutory powers and immunities possessed by township treasurers for the collection of taxes; provided however, that taxes and other lawful assessments and charges on any City tax roll which remain unpaid on the first day of October may be transferred together with any collection fees or charges which have been added thereto to the delinquent tax rolls to be collected thereon. The City tax roll shall be delivered to the Treasurer on or before the 15th day of June.

SECTION 11.15 TAX LIEN ON PROPERTY

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, City taxes shall be due on July 1 of each year and on that day the taxes assessed to the owners of personal property shall become a debt due to the City from the persons to whom they are assessed and the amounts assessed on any interest in real property shall become a lien upon said real property for such amounts and for interest charges thereon.

(b) All personal property taxes shall be a first lien, prior, superior and paramount on all personal property of such persons so assessed. Such liens shall take precedence over all other claims, encumbrances and liens, to the extent provided by law, and shall continue until such taxes, interest and charges are paid.

SECTION 11.16 TAXES DUE NOTIFICATION THEREOF

(a) City taxes shall be due on July 1st of each year. The Treasurer shall not be required to call upon the persons named in the City tax roll, nor to make personal demands for the payment of taxes, but he shall:

(1) Publish between June 15th and July 1st notice of the time when said taxes will be due for collection and penalties for late payment of the same, and

(2) Mail a bill to each person named in said roll, but in case of multiple ownership of property, only one bill need be mailed.

(b) Failure on the part of the Treasurer to publish said notice or mail such bills shall not invalidate the taxes on said tax roll nor release the person or property assessed from the penalties and fees provided in this Chapter in case of late payment or non-payment of same.

SECTION 11.17 COLLECTION FEES AND INTEREST

All taxes paid on or before September 30th of each year shall be collected by the Treasurer without additional charge. To all taxes, charges and assessments paid after September 30th there shall be added a collection fee of one-half of one percent during the month of October and an additional one-half of one percent per month during each and every month or fraction of a month which shall elapse thereafter before the payment of such taxes, charges or assessments is made, until the last day of November next following that date that such taxes, charges and assessments become due and payable. Upon all City taxes, charges and assessments returned to the County Treasurer upon any delinquent tax roll, a charge of three and one-half percent shall be added and the same shall be collected by the County Treasurer in like manner as and together with the taxes, charges and assessments so returned. Such collection fees shall belong to the City and shall constitute a charge and shall be a lien against the property to which the taxes themselves apply, collectible in the same manner as taxes to which they are added.

SECTION 11.18 STATE, COUNTY AND SCHOOL TAXES

For the purpose of assessing and collecting taxes for state, county and school purposes, the City shall be considered the same as a township and all provisions of law relative to the collection of and accounting for such taxes shall apply. For these purposes, the Treasurer shall perform the same duties and have the same powers as are granted and imposed upon township Treasurers by law.

SECTION 11.19 PROTECTION OF CITY LIENS

The City shall have power, insofar as the exercise thereof shall not conflict with or contravene the provisions of law, to acquire such an interest in any premises within the City by purchase at any tax or other public sale or by direct purchase from the State of Michigan or the owner in fee as may be necessary to assure to the City the collection of its taxes, special assessments or charges which are levied against any lot or parcel of real property or to protect the lien of the City therefor, and may hold, lease, sell, or exchange the same. Any such procedure exercised by the City to assure the collection of its taxes or the protection of its tax or other liens shall be deemed to be for a public purpose. The Council may adopt any ordinance which may be necessary to make this section effective.

SECTION 11.20 DISPOSITION OF REAL PROPERTY

The Council shall pass an ordinance providing for the care, custody and disposition of real property, or any interest therein, which it shall hereafter acquire by reason of any action taken to protect the City's tax lien thereon. Unless action is taken by the Council as provided and permitted in this section, the owner of any interest therein by fee title, as mortgagee or as vendor or vendee under land contract shall be given the right to purchase the City's interest therein, upon payment to the City of the amount of money which the City has invested therein in the form of unpaid taxes, special assessments and charges, fees, penalties, interest and cost. After the lapse of ninety (90) days after date that the City acquires title to any such property, Council may remove the same from the market by determining that such property is needed for and should be devoted to a public purpose, and naming such purpose, or may sell the same at a price that shall be not less than its market value as determined and certified to Council by the Assessor.

SECTION 11.21 FAILURE OR REFUSAL TO PAY PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX

If any person shall neglect or refuse to pay any tax on personal property assessed to him, the Treasurer shall collect the same by seizing the personal property of such person, to an amount sufficient to pay such tax, fees, and charges, whenever the same may be found in the State. No personal property shall be exempt from such seizure. He may sell the property seized, to an amount sufficient to pay the taxes, charges, fees and penalties in accordance with law. The Treasurer may if otherwise unable to collect the tax on such personal property, sue the person to whom it is assessed in accordance with the powers granted to him by statute.

SECTION 11.22 COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES

All taxes and charges together with fees, penalties and interest on real property on the tax roll remaining uncollected by the Treasurer on the first day of December following the date when the roll was received by him shall be returned to the County Treasurer to the extent and in the same manner and with like effect as provided by law for returns of township treasurers on township and county taxes. Such returns shall include all the additional assessments, taxes, fees, penalties and interest hereinbefore provided, which shall be added to the amount assessed in said tax roll against each property or person. Taxes thus returned shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes returned by the County Treasurer or collected, in accordance with law, and shall be and remain a lien upon the property against which they are assessed until paid.

If at the expiration of the time limit in said notice, the owner has not complied with the requirements thereof, or in any case where the owner of the land or of the building or structure itself is not known, the Mayor or Council may order such hazard or nuisance abated by the proper department or agency of the City, or may do the work by contract or by hire, and the cost of such abatement shall be assessed against the lot, premises, or description of real property upon which such hazard or nuisance is located by special assessment, provided same is permitted under State law.

(b) The Council shall determine what amount or part of each expense shall be charged, and the person, if known, against whom the charge shall be made, and the premises upon which the same shall be levied as a special assessment; and as often as the Council shall deem it expedient, it shall require notice of all of the several amounts so reported and determined to be given by the Clerk either by registered or certified mail sent to their last known address as shown on the assessment roll of the City, or by publication. Such notice shall state the basis of the assessment, the cost thereof and shall give a reasonable time, which shall not be less than thirty (30) days, in which payment shall be made. In all cases where payment is not made within the time limit, the same shall be reported by the Clerk to the Assessor who shall spread such amount against the several persons or descriptions of real property chargeable therewith on the next roll for the collection of City taxes.

SECTION 12.2 SIDEWALKS

The Council may prescribe by Ordinance that sidewalks, except crosswalks, shall be built and/or repaired, by the owners of platted land within the City in the public streets adjacent to and abutting upon such lots and premises by giving 30 days notice that said sidewalk shall be built and/or repaired by certified mail or posting notice on the premises. In case of the failure of any such owner to comply with the provisions of such ordinances, the City may build or repair, or cause to be built or repaired, such sidewalks and assess the cost thereof against such owner and against the land improved thereby in a manner prescribed by the Council by Ordinance.

SECTION 12.3 BOULEVARD LIGHTING

The Council shall have the power to assess the cost of installing a boulevard lighting system on any street upon the lands abutting thereupon, provided the property owners of a majority of the frontage on such street or part thereof to be so improved shall petition therefor.

SECTION 12.4 GENERAL POWER RELATIVE TO SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

The Council shall have the power to determine the necessity of any local or public improvement with or without a petition therefor and to determine that the whole or any part of the expense thereof shall be defrayed by special assessment upon the property especially benefited, provided that all special assessments levied shall be in proportion to the benefits derived from the improvement.

SECTION 12.5 PROCEDURE TO BE FIXED BY ORDINANCE

The Council shall prescribe by ordinance the complete special assessment procedure concerning the initiation of projects, plans and specifications, estimates of costs, notice of hearings, making and confirming assessment rolls, and the correction of errors therein, collection of special assessments, and any other matters concerning the making of improvement by the special assessment method, subject to the provisions of this Charter and State Law.

SECTION 12.6 OBJECTION TO IMPROVEMENT

If, at or prior to final confirmation of any special assessment, more than fifty percent of the number of owners of privately owned real property to be assessed for an improvement, or in case of paving or similar improvements more than fifty percent of the number of owners of frontage to be assessed for any such improvement, shall object in writing to the proposed improvement, the improvement shall not be made by proceedings authorized by this chapter without a five-sevenths vote of the members of the Council elect, or a two-thirds vote of the Council elect, in the event the Council membership is increased as provided for in Section 4.1 of Chapter IV of this Charter, provided that this section shall not apply to sidewalk construction.

SECTION 12.7 INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS OF ASSESSMENT

The Council may provide for the payment of special assessments in annual installments, not to exceed thirty in number, the first installment being due upon confirmation of the roll and the deferred installments being due annually thereafter or, in the discretion of the Council, may be spread upon and made a part of each annual City tax roll thereafter until all are paid. Interest may be charged upon deferred installments at a rate not to exceed nine percent per year payable annually. Under any installment plan adopted the whole or any deferred installments with accrued interest to date of payment may be paid in advance of the due dates established.

SECTION 12.8 ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT

When any special assessment roll shall prove insufficient to meet the cost of the improvement for which it was made, the Council may make an additional pro rata assessment, but the total amount assessed against any one parcel of land shall not exceed the benefits received by said lot or parcel of land.

SECTION 12.9 REFUNDS OF ASSESSMENTS

The Clerk shall, within sixty (60) days after the completion of each local or special public improvement, compile the actual cost thereof and certify the same to the Assessor who shall adjust the special assessment roll to correspond therewith. Should the assessment prove larger than necessary by five percent or less, the same shall be reported to the Council which may place the excess in the City treasury or make a refund thereof pro rata according to the assessment. If the assessment exceeds the amount necessary by more than five percent, or $5,000 the entire excess shall be credited to owners of property as shown by the City assessment roll upon which such assessment has been levied, pro rata according to the assessment; provided however, that no refunds of special assessments may be made which impair or contravene the provision of any outstanding obligation or bond secured in whole or part by such special assessments.

SECTION 12.10 SPECIAL ASSESSMENT ACCOUNTS

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, moneys raised by special assessments to pay the cost of any local improvement, shall be held in a special fund to pay such cost or to repay any money borrowed therefor. Each special assessment account must be used only for the improvement project for which the assessment was levied, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

SECTION 12.11 CONTESTED ASSESSMENTS

Except and unless notice is given to the Council in writing of an intention to contest or enjoin the collection of any special assessment for the construction of any pavement, sewer, or other public improvement, the construction of any sidewalk, or the removal or abatement of any public hazard or nuisance, within thirty (30) days after the date of the meeting of the Council at which it is finally determined to proceed with the making of the improvement in question, which notice shall state the grounds on which the proceedings are to be contested, no suit or action of any kind shall be instituted or maintained for the purpose of contesting or enjoining the collection of such special assessments; and regardless of whether or not any public improvement is completed in any special assessment district, no owner of real property located in such district shall be entitled to commence any suit or action for the purpose of contesting or enjoining the collection of any such special assessment after he has received the benefits from the substantial completion of that portion of such public improvement for which he is assessed.

All proceedings on such reassessment and for the collection thereof shall be made in the same manner as provided for in an original assessment. If any portion of the original assessment shall have been collected and not refunded, it shall be applied upon the reassessment and the reassessment shall to that extent be deemed satisfied. If more than the amount reassessed shall have been collected, the balance shall be refunded to the persons making such payment.

SECTION 12.13 DELINQUENT SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

Special assessments and all interest and charges thereon, from the date of confirmation of the roll, shall be and remain a lien upon the property assessed of the same character and effect as the lien created by general law for State and county taxes, and by this Charter for City taxes, until paid. From such date and after confirmation as shall be fixed by the Council, the same collection fees shall be collected on delinquent special assessments and upon delinquent installments of special assessment beginning on the following October 1st of each year, as are provided by this Charter to be collected on delinquent City taxes. Such delinquent special assessments shall be subject to the same penalties, and the land upon which the same are a lien shall be subject to sale therefor, the same as are delinquent City taxes and the lands upon which they constitute a lien.

SECTION 12.14 LIEN NOT DESTROYED BY JUDGMENT

No judgment or decree, or any act of the Council vacating a special assessment shall destroy or impair the lien of the City upon the premises assessed, for such amount of the assessment as may be equitably charged against the same, or as by a regular vote or proceeding might have been lawfully assessed thereon.

SECTION 12.15 SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS: HEARINGS AND NOTICE THEREOF

In all cases where special assessments are made against property, public hearings shall be held prior to the determination of necessity of any local improvement and prior to the confirmation of any special assessment. Notice of hearings in special assessment proceedings shall be given in accordance with the provisions of Act 162, of the Public Acts of 1962 as amended.

(b) The City shall have the right to permit and regulate the use by others than the owners, of property located in the streets, alleys and public places, in the operation of a public utility, upon the payment of a reasonable compensation to the owners thereof.

SECTION 16.3 PERMIT REVOCABLE

The Council may grant a permit at any time in or upon any street, alley or public place; provided, that such permit shall be revocable by the Council at its pleasure at any time, whether such right to revoke be expressly reserved in said permit or not.

SECTION 16.4 FRANCHISE ELECTIONS

No public utility franchise which is not revocable at the will of the City shall be granted unless the same shall have received the affirmative vote of three-fifths of the electors of the City voting thereon at a regular or special municipal election. No franchise shall be submitted under the provisions of this Charter, to the electors at a special election, unless the cost of holding the election, as determined by the Council, shall be paid to the Treasurer in advance of calling said election by the grantee in such franchise.

The grant of every franchise shall be subject to the right of the City whether in terms reserved or not, to make all regulations which shall be necessary to secure in the most ample manner the safety, welfare and accommodation of the public, and the right to make and enforce all such regulations as shall be reasonably necessary to secure adequate, sufficient and proper service, extensions and accommodations for the people and insure their comfort and convenience. Such right of the City shall include but shall not be limited to the following viz:

Nothing in such ordinance shall prevent the City from acquiring the property of any such utility by condemnation proceedings or in any other lawful manner; but all such methods of acquisition shall be alternative to the power to purchase reserved in the ordinance granting such franchise, extension or renewal as hereinbefore provided. Upon the acquisition by the City of the property of any utility by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, all franchises, extensions and renewals shall at once terminate.

SECTION 16.10 FRANCHISE ORDINANCE REQUIREMENT

No ordinance granting such franchise, or extension or renewal thereof, shall be valid unless it shall expressly provide therein that the price to be paid by the City for the property that may be acquired by it from such utility by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, shall exclude all value of such franchise, extension or renewal, except that unless otherwise provided in such ordinance, the utility shall be entitled to the return of the proportionate amount for the unused period of any compensation paid to the City for such franchise, extension or renewal.
